DANIEL POLING VISITS PACIFIC

Speaks to the Student Body on "The Grip That Holds."

Daniel Poling, graduate of Dallas College, prohibition orator of national reputation and acting president of the United Y. P. S. C. E., paid Pacific a flying visit on the eighth while enroute to Portland from the W. C. T. U. convention at Newberg.

The Student Body and friends had the privilege of listening to this master of oratory for the all too short period of half an hour as he spoke on "The Grip That Holds." He illustrated this theme in beginning by recalling an experience of his own in which a small stunted pine tree saved him from being dashed to death from the top of a high precipice in the Cascade mountains, because it had a grip that held. Every young person must get a grip that will hold. Some seek to be held merely by tradition, but tradition is not infallible and often fails to hold. Others attempt to obtain this grip by acquiring knowledge. The man who knows has most assuredly a powerful grip but knowledge alone will not hold under all conditions. Many have the grip of faith in all things, but faith sometimes falters and slips.

The grip that will hold true through all conditions and under all circumstances is Jesus Christ, a personal knowledge of whom is absolutely essential to the true success of any life.

REV. W. G. ELIOT SPEAKS TO MEN

On the morning of September 30 Rev. W. G. Eliot of Portland, member of the Oregon State Board of Hygiene, spoke to the men in school on present vice conditions, the work of the State Board of Hygiene and the need for yet greater accomplishments along moral lines.

His particular appeal was to the college men to voluntarily enlist their efforts in the cause of moral righteousness.

Cheer up, there are lots of homely folks in this world.

Manager Taggart Very Enthusiastic Over Prospect.

The first meeting of Pacific's Glee Club was held Friday, the eighth, and officers were elected, Emmett Gulley '17 was chosen to act as president, Ross Miles '18 secretary and treasurer and Prof. Taggart manager. Great interest is being manifest in the work of the club and excellent results are to be expected. Manager Taggart is particularly enthusiastic over the prospect and assures us that there will be something doing worthy of notice shortly.

"COURT RECORDS"

The fine weather has permitted almost uninterrupted play on the courts and as a result many fast matches have been played. Taggart is champion of the faculty, Guver of the Soph-Frosh, Replogle of the Junior-Seniors, and Kaufman of the Academy. The drawings for the finals have been made and the matches will be played this week. By far the most interesting match played thus far was Replogle and Gulley vs. Taggart and Hull, the former winning 6-4, 5-7, 7-5. The match was closely contested throughout and furnished much amusement for the spectators.

The results of the matches are as follows:

PRES. PENNINGTON LEAVES FOR EAST

Professor R. W. Lewis Is Acting President During His Absence.

Friday, October 15th, President Pennington left for the East to attend the International Friends Conference of Men, which is to be held at Richmond, Indiana, October 20-22.

He goes by way of Seattle and Chicago, expecting to stop a short time at these way points. After the close of the conference he will remain in the East for some time, working in the interests of Pacific. Mrs. Pennington accompanied him and will assist him in his work.

During his absence Prof. R. W. Lewis, of the English and philosophy department, will act as president.

FACULTY FEEDS FURIOUSLY

Friday evening, October 1, the members of the faculty laid aside professorial cares and dignity and assembled in the Domestic Science kitchen to partake of the first unofficial, semi-occasional "feed." The ladies of the faculty assisted by the wives of the married members prepared the toothsome repast, while the gentlemen shone with varying degrees of brilliancy when the time came to surround the "festal board" to dispose of the steaming viands. "Ham and," rolls, baked beans, pickles and fruit were handled without mercy, but with neatness and dispatch. The intervals of time between the courses were occupied with solving various "near" mathematical problems. Mrs. Hull was voted the prize in this department. When all the participants had reached the "mournful" stage, the tables were cleared, which gave Prof. Hawkins an opportunity to "star" at the dishwashing. He says "It pays to advertise." Under the careful chaperonage of Rev. and Mrs. Whitely, the party broke up at an early hour, all agreeing that the evening's program had been fully satisfying.

Remember those lyceum tickets.

CHEATING IN EXAMINATIONS

It looks ugly, that word "cheating," wherever it is used. Because it is so ugly, schoolboys like to employ a substitute to designate the deceit that they frequently practice in examinations. You will often hear a boy speak of "cribbing" in examinations; you will seldom hear him speak of cheating in examinations. Cribbing suggests an act less depraved, more adventurous and light-hearted—a prank rather than a crime.

Yet when a system of cheating in a school or a college is suddenly brought to light, the boys who lightly joked among themselves about the cribbing are ashamed and mortified, the school or the college is hurt in the public esteem, there appears little of the pranksome and jocular to extenuate the shabbiness of the demonstrated fact, and somehow all the easy justifications fall to the ground. There is only one standard of honor, and it is not to be revised by school boys.—Youths Companion.

Y. W. C. A.

Marjory Gregory and Mildred Benson, chairmen of the membership and voluntary study committees respectively, had charge of the second meeting of the year. The value of active connection with the association was strongly presented by many of the old members, and the plans for Bible study were outlined by Miss Benson. It has been decided to have two classes in Student Standards of Action, one to meet at the noon hour, the other after school. Miss Sutton and Alta Gumm will have these classes and every girl in school should avail herself of this opportunity of taking this work.

Mrs. Unruh, national organizer of the W. C. T. U., gave an interesting and impressive talk to the Association girls Wednesday, October 6. Her theme was "The Power of Womanhood."

Following Mrs. Unruh's talk a brief recognition service was held, when eleven new members were received and welcomed into the association.

Y. M. C. A.

September 29 was subscription day at Y. M. C. A. Money was raised for the local association and subscriptions made to the state association. Meade Elliott had charge, raising $27.50 from those present.

On October 6 was held the initial evangelistic service, led by Rev. Charles O. Whitely. The three points dwelt upon were: "Be sound in doctrine and theory, but above all be practical;" "The fact that there is so much counterfeit in religion only proves that there must be a genuine somewhere," and "Be a willing servant."

TREFIAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The opening meeting of the Trefian Literary Society was held at the close of school Sept. 29. Twenty-eight girls gathered in the dormitory parlors, making a very promising outlook for new members and a still more flourishing society.

The meeting was called to order and new officers for the year were elected. Alta Gumm was elected president; Marjorie Gregory, vice-president; Louise Hodgkin, Secretary; Esther Terrell, treasurer; Myrtle Thomas, editor; Mary Pennington, marshal; Miss Sutton, critic and Mrs. Hodgkin faculty advisor. Ruth Hinshaw was elected chairman of the social committee and Marjory Gregory as vice-president will take the chairmanship of the program committee.

As soon as the business was disposed of the meeting adjourned for a social and get-acquainted time for both the old as well as the new girls. Cocoa and wafers were served.

For the benefit of any who might wish to know, the "Trefian" comes from the Greek verb, meaning to grow, to increase. Thus the purpose of the Trefian Literary Society is to cause its members to grow in culture and to provide an opportunity for the women and girls of the college to grow and increase in those things which a literary society is especially fitted to provide.

AGORETON SOCIETY

The men's literary society has started with a zip and snap which is entirely new and which seems to signify a big year of pleasure. The officers for the coming term are as follows: Clarence Jones, president; Harold Nichols, vice-president; Alden Sanders, secretary; Addison Kaufman, treasurer and Lester Warner committeeman.

The men all seem to feel that the only way to have a successful year in the literary society, and a year which will prove beneficial to every member, is for everyone to take his part promptly and in a good spirit. We all have perfect confidence in the ability of Nichols and Warner to present ideas in the way of programs which will be both entertaining and instructive.

ALUMNI NOTES

The question is so often asked as to the whereabouts of the members of last year's class that we shall give an account of them.

Walter H. Wilson has been in Denver, Colorado, since September serving as the pastor of the Friends church. Two members of the class, Florence Kaufman and Harry Haworth, are teaching in Greenleaf Academy, Idaho. Arthur Benson has been working in Parma, Idaho, and while nothing has been heard as to his plans for the winter it is likely he will be at Greenleaf, Idaho, this winter. Ellis Pickett is teaching a school on Chehalem Mountain, and his proximity to the college enables him to visit us occasionally. R. Gladys Hannon is engaged in field work for the W. C. T. U. in Montana. Lisle Hubbard is at home at Springbrook, Oregon, and it is reported that he has been preaching at Chehalem Center. Eva Campbell is teaching the Schofield school near Buxton.

Your eyes are like pools of water deep and dark,
Your voice is like the song of the meadow-lark,
Your hair is so wavy it almost breaks,
And your hands are like great big hamburger steaks.

PACIFIC RIPPLES

Miss Edith Minchin was a visitor at school Oct. 11.

Prof. Taggart's slogan, "Where is my wandering boy tonight."

Pacific is certainly going to have "some" glee club this year.

Lyle Hubbard of Class '15 was a chapel visitor Friday morning, Oct. 8.

We are pleased to see that Robert Dann's left "wing" is out again.

The college male quartet sang on Thursday evening of the W. C. T. U. convention.

"Ralph Parlette" is the opening Lyceum attraction Oct. 22. Better get your tickets early.

Rev. Chas. O. Whitely left on Tuesday, Oct. 12 for the East where he expects to be for some time working in the interest of the college.

The gymnasium, thanks to the Athletic Association, is undergoing the process of re-roofing on the south slope. Hasten boys, it looks like rain.

A large number of students attended a Christian Endeavor social given by the Friends Society Oct. 2. A novel and interesting time was reported.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the college held a Rummage sale Oct. 23-24 and 25 which proved very successful. Anything from a hot tamale to a fur overcoat could be obtained at little cost.

Did Pettingill make a "rush order" trip after Prof. Weesner's keys for the benefit of President Pennington following an interesting tennis game? Yes, we think so. See L. T. P. for particulars.

Many of the students attended the sessions of the State convention of W. C. T. U. which was held at the Friends church in this city last week. Among the speakers of note were Gov. Withycomb, Daniel Poling and Mrs. Unruh.

(Prof.) Of what nationality was Caesar's wife?

(Freshie) Irish.

(Prof.) What makes you think so?

(Freshie) Well the book said that when Caesar came to the Rubicon he proposed to Bridget (bridge it).

Word has been received that Prof. Wm. J. Reagan, who was a member of Pacific faculty from '08 until '11, has resigned his position at Friends University, Wichita, Kansas, and has accepted the pastorate of a church at New Providence, New York. He is also carrying work at Cornell University, preparatory to receiving his doctor's degree.

The students have about despaired of hearing the faculty in chapel this year.

(Familiar expression of the Sophs) "If you just knew all the things that I keep thinking of."

What seems to be the matter with the Juniors' class tree? It doesn't seem as fresh and green as in days of yore.

Vern Harrington '19 is back in school again after several days absence necessitated by a "football" shoulder.

H. E. H. seems to have a lasting affection for the "dorm" cookstove. 'Tis said he is very quickly affected by "chill" under proper circumstances.

NEWBERG HIGH SCHOOL ITEMS

The first student body meeting of the new semester was held September 28. The following members were elected: Basketball manager, Howard Elliott; yell master, Raymond Bassett.

The student body meeting of June 3 elected the following officers: President, James Say; vice-president, Walter Bartlett; secretary, Edna Hodges; treasurer, Mildred Ferguson.

The annual freshman reception was given by the Newberg high school on the evening of October 1. After a well-planned program, games were enjoyed in the gymnasium. One interesting feature of the reception was a wrestling match between Floyd Stewart and Harry Rockwell. A dainty luncheon, served cafeteria style from the school library, ended a very enjoyable evening.

The football season was opened October 9, with a game on the P. C. campus between the high school and the high school alumni. The score was 10-15 in favor of the high school.

SCHOOL SPIRIT IS WHAT?

Loyalty or school spirit, sometimes called "pep." is the subject of many lengthy discussions in school publications at about this time of year and in some instances the description and characterization is very indefinite, leaving us with an indefinite, hazy feeling that inflated nothingness is about the only concrete quality of the article described.

But we say that is not true school spirit. Well, if it is not, then what is college loyalty and what constitutes "pep."

Write out your answer in not over one hundred and fifty words and slip it into the Crescent box. The best answer in the judgment of the staff will be published later.

FRESHIE HAVE YOU?

Have you laid awake a planning when you should have been asleep
Of the brilliant recitation that you'd surely make next week

How you'd prove yourself no blockhead and you'd raise your grades a "hunk;"

But get rattled in reciting and be marked down as a "flunk?"

Have you studied in the evening when the lights were dim and low

Yes and kept right on a "cramming" when the morn begins to glow

Then have studied more at recess and at noon, by use of "spunk;"

Just to prove yourself a "bonehead" in the quizz and get a "flunk?"

Never mind it Freshman laddie, never mind it Freshman lass

It's a very common failing of every Freshman class;

Just keep right on a-planning and a-cramming with your "thunk."

And you soon will be a Sophomore wise and never get a "flunk."

Dann is a great sculptor. He is a maker of many busts, otherwise known as breaks.

Soph—Where do all these insects go in winter?

Frosh—Search me.

YEA, VERILY, IT IS SO.

Once upon a time at a certain school in a certain small city within a certain beautiful country, there attended many youths and maidens who were accustomed at a given time each day to assemble themselves together that they might in unison participate in the singing of songs and in the absorbing of the sayings of wisdom which might fall from the lips of their learned instructors.

But as time passed by the youths and maidens murmured together saying "Wy must we continuously sing songs that we do not sing and listen to discourses that are not given; let us change our ways and get for ourselves songs we will delight to sing and have discourses that shall be given." Thus murmured they each to the other.

DON'T DO IT, AND WHY

Don't act fresh, it makes you appear green.

Don't be "smart," it ruins your schoolmates' dispositions.

Don't wear "loud" neckties into the library, they may shatter the stillness.

Don't smile at the other fellow's girl, he may be watching.

Don't be impatient with the faculty, they were once young and ignorant, too.

Don't laugh at other's "breaks," you are probably "cracked" yourself.

Don't throw ink on white socks, you may need it in exams.
