THE CLASS OF 1919 OF P. C.

The Freshmen are Well Represented and Start a Brilliant Career.

Things looked dark for the class of '19 when registration first began this year. Many of the High School and Academy graduates had signified their intention of staying out of school and few new students had been heard from. But great was the joy when on the last day of registration it was found that these graduates had changed their minds and had registered. The trains also began unloading new students until when the smoke had cleared away we had a class of fifteen members. Many localities were represented, from Greenleaf, Idaho, Everett and Roy, Washington, to many points in Oregon.

At first the older students thought that we were rather small and insignificant but they soon realized that we were "the class that does things." They thought we were slow but before they had finished preparing to begin we had our class organized, committees appointed and different social functions under way.

We continued the custom of dedicating a class tree to the College campus—something that last year's Freshmen class never did. Another example of our progressiveness is the fact that we are publishing this, the first issue of the Crescent to be published by any class this year.

We are well represented in all student activities, having places on the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. Cabinets, the executive committees of both the Trefian and Agoreton Literary Societies and several members in the Glee Club. We also have our share in Athletics with four men on the Basket Ball squad and one on the Varsity.

With so much of our school life before us and the splendid prospects which we have, we hope to wield a good influence in school affairs during the next three years.

H. E. H.

The custom of tree-planting at Pacific College is nearly as old as the college itself, as some of the sentinels near the old building will testify. On November 10, 1915, the student body gathered with us, the class of 1919, at the north end of Wood-Mar Hall to dedicate a graceful Deodar cedar, to stand as representative of our loyalty to Pacific.

P. C. STARTS SEASON WITH 3 BIG VICTORIES

The Indians and Dentists are a Sad Disappointment to the P. C. Team.

The local basket ball season opened Dec. 18th, when Pacific College defeated the North Pacific Dental College to the tune of 79 to 13. The Dentists arrived in town, confident of an easy victory. They went home looking like a funeral procession. P. C. played an easy game from the start, Captain Replogle scoring 43 points in 40 minutes of play.

Line up:
P. C. (79)	N. P. D. C. (13)
Replogle (Capt.)	F. Brecken
Hinshaw-Elliott	F. Bennett
Gulley	C. Eckerson
Colcord	G. Jonnson
Miles-Guyer	G. Willett
Referee Parker

On Friday, Dec. 31st, Pacific journeyed to Chemawa and, in a very closely contested game, defeated the Indians 34 to 30. The score was close at all times during the game, the first half ending 16 to 20 in favor of Chemawa. The second half looked bad at the first, even with Colcord holding Downie, the Indian star forward, to a no point game. The game was really won during the last 4 minutes of play when Replogle and Hinshaw successfully scored 2 baskets each.

P. C. (34)	Chemawa (30)
Replogle (Capt.)	F. Downie
Hinshaw	F. Adams
Gulley	C. Byrd
Colcord	G. Chamberlain
Guyer	G. Kennerly
Referee—Matthews

On Friday, Jan. 7th, the Indians played a return game and again met defeat, taking their medicine, however, like true braves. The game started with a rush and things looked doubtful for awhile. The first half ended with P. C. in the lead 28 to 19. In this half Byrd scored 5 goals for the visitors, all of them from near the center of the floor. The second half was less closely contested. Gulley and Replogle starred for Pacific.

Line up:
P. C. (49)	Chemawa (26)
Replogle (Capt.)	F. Downie
Hinshaw	F. Adams
Gulley	C. Byrd
Colcord	G. Chamberlain
Miles-Edwards	G. Kennerly
Referee—Parker

With the new mascot, Nihil, the team ought to be able to meet the rest of the games as successfully as they have these three.

W. D. W. '19.

Prof. Weesner (in Algebra III) "Now, this problem may have no solution, if you find that you can't salute it, perhaps you can't wore it by the graph."

Three cheers for "Nihil," long live his guardian.

CHEMAWA INDIAN STRING QUARTET

Large and Appreciative Audience Listens to Splendid Concert Monday Evening.

The Chemawa Indian String Quartet delighted a large audience at Wood-Mar Hall on Monday evening, Jan. 10th. Their selections were excellent and pleasingly rendered. The Indian Suite was out of the ordinary and very expressive. Perhaps one of the most enjoyable numbers was the "Reverie" a composition of Mr. Turney, the leader of the Quartet.

The narrative lecture on Jean Val Jean, the hero of "Les Misérables," given by Mr. Richard H. Kennedy was also of special merit.

The Chemawa Indian String Quartet is the only company of its sort in America and has before it a promising career.

The following was their program:

P. C. MAULS MAC ON HER OWN FLOOR

P. C. wins victory over Mc-Minnville on her home floor.

P. C. made her first point for the League championship last Saturday night, when, for the first time in years, she "mauled Mac" on their home floor with a score of 27 to 23. A detailed account of the game will appear in our next issue.

One of the most frequent criticisms of the student body of P. C. made by people, especially new students coming from other schools, is on our lack of school and class spirit. Now is this a fair criticism? If it is, let's not allow it to be so any longer. The basket ball season is just starting, giving every student of Pacific College a most excellent opportunity to fan their little flame of loyalty to a roaring blaze that will last the remainder of this year and the years to come. Feel that Pacific is your college and act so that if every one else followed your course there would be more school spirit manifest than ever before.

Y. W. C. A.

The first Y. W. C. A. meeting of 1916 was led by the chairman of the Social Committee, Christine Hollingsworth. The topic was "New Year Resolutions" and the scripture lesson was from the twenty-fourth chapter of Joshua.

Mr. Ernest Taylor, Secretary of Political Campaigns of the Prohibition Party in the northwest spoke in Y. W. C. A. this week. He asked three questions: "How many of you believe in Prohibition?" "How many are total abstainers?" and "How many believe in National Prohibition?" Every girl seemed to believe in all of these but he pointed out the fact that we have very different ideas of how to bring about National Prohibition even though we do all believe in it. The only way to have National Prohibition is to elect a Prohibition party to power as the Nation is governed by political parties.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Wednesday, Dec. 15, W. H. Body spoke in Y. M. C. A., on "The Conclusions of a Skeptic."

He brought out the thought that the basis of the sceptician is his lofty conception of God.

Professor Perisho spoke to us Wednesday, Dec. 22, on that vital question to all, "Friendship." Through illustrations and facts he showed the real value of a true friend, how our wealth and even our life at his disposal, yet we utterly refuse to give Christ, the only true friend, our supreme confidence.

Jan. 5, Y. M. C. A. was left in the hands of Paul Lewis. A long time having intervened since last testimony meeting, he gave each sufficient time to express himself, especially along the lines of "Progress spiritually made during the last year." All enjoyed the experiences related.

Rev. Lee, of the Presbyterian church, talked to us last Wednesday with the theme "Has Christianity failed in the light of the present war." He said that today people do not regard the Christian religion sacred but as past and dead and of no value to mankind. It is not Christianity, but mankind which has failed.

TREFIAN

The Trefian Literary Society gave an impromptu Christmas program at 4 p. m. Dec. 15. Roll call was answered by Christmas quotations. Zoe Hibbs gave a very appropriate reading and Esther Miles and Christine Hollingsworth sang a duet, "Silent Night." Next came speeches, Myrtle Thomas, "My First Impressions of Santa Claus;" Elsie Reed, "Remembrances of Past Christmases," and Miss Sutton, "My Ideal Christmas." Mary Sanders followed these with a humorous reading. The society then adjourned to the domestic science room where each member found places at the table and proceeded to enjoy the luncheon served by the social committee. Toasts followed with Mrs. Hodgin acting as toast mistress.

The first meeting of the New Year was held at 4 p. m., Jan. 12, in Canyon Hall. The spirit of Leap Year was expressed in the whole program. Elizabeth Anderson read the final installment of the continued story, bringing about a very happy ending. A well rendered piano solo was given by Marjorie Gregory. Following this came a most interesting Leap Year Soliloquy by Miss Lewis. An original poem, "A Little Boy's Idea of Leap Year," was cleverly given by Harriet Hodgin. The program reached a spectacular and thrilling climax in the Leap Year Stunt carried out by Irene Hodgin, Mary Sanders, Esther Terrell and Elsie Reed.

CHAPEL NOTES

The first of the special music promised us by the Halls at the beginning of the year was given Dec. 10, when Mrs. Hull played the "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven which was very much appreciated.

On Dec. 13 Dr. Hester, one of Pacific's most loyal alumni, told us about some of the things that make the Friends a distinctive people and the effect which Friends principles have had on their lives.

An expression often heard in many schools was answered by Miss Lewis on Dec. 16: "I can't learn Latin, Greek or mathematics." Decide to learn it and then study. Of course the past must be atoned for so it won't come easy all at once but there is a difference between "I can" and "I can't."

On Dec. 17 Miss Sutton told of the terrible Armenian massacres. America has a great interest, not only for sympathetic reasons but because she has sent so many missionaries to Armenia and aided in other ways.

On Jan. 6 Rev. Herbert Cash, formerly of Newberg now of Montavilla, led chapel with the subject "Full Surrender to God." Christian thought and service must be greater in America than ever before because of the present war. If we would make the world better we must be better men and women.

Miss McCracken told us Jan. 7, some things about Cuba, the land where they have three hundred and sixty-four holidays in the year. The Saints' Days are especially honored and nearly all children are named for saints.

THE CLASS PICTURE

We here present a photograph Of P. C.'s splendid freshmen class; Some are handsome, all good looking, All in fine intellects surpass.

Now Harold Hinshaw first we see With soulful eyes of baby blue; He fussing? Not our president— He's promised ever to be true.

The next is Marjory Gregory— She's secretary of our class. She's famous on the Crescent staff, She's really quite a noted lass.

Before you Hazei Paulsen stands; She is our honored treasurer, And even though she gets our cash We all have great regard for her.

This slim youth is George Pettengill, His rare good nature don't abuse. His friendship would you like to win? Then never say "Here comes the muse."

Just to the right we see Zoe Hibbs, Just full of mischief, fun and grit; 'Tis sometimes whispered through the halls, "Here comes the long and short of it."

Claude Pearson is a Greenleaf chap Who's lately grown a pompadour; He's studied Greek, and plays at guard Upon P. C.'s gymnasium floor.

Now Willard Wiley won last year The scholarship to old P. C., But spite of all she's done for him His heart in Rex still seems to be.

For Harold Nichols, let me warn, A paltry jitney will not pay; His hair is worth much more than that. 'Twill curl upon a rainy day.

The dimples and the laughing eyes Are owned by one, Miss Nellie Crow, She'll make a fine "school marm" some day—

Her patience is without a flaw.

Miss Elsie Reed, the song-bird of Our nineteen hundred nineteen class, We surely ought to speak of her If we should let all others pass.

Ruth Dimmitt is Zoe's chaperon When Zoe and comp'ny "fussing" go And on her peaceful brow, I fear, Deep lines of care too soon will show.

Ruth Hinshaw is a friendly girl; 'Tis she who plans the social do's. There's one who'll never lonely be For sympathy she can't refuse.

When Elmer Warner's in the gym He very quickly downs his foes By deadly elbows, arms and feet— Not by the baskets which he throws.

I mustn't forget our friend, Belle White, Who giggles and runs in the halls; She writes bum rhymes 'bout all her friends

But when she comes to herself she stalls. B. W. '19.

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Allen have been quite ill with la grippe but are much better.

Elizabeth Anderson spent two days of the Christmas holidays in Portland.

Floyd Bates, a member of the P. A., '15, class, who is now attending O. A. C., visited the college Tuesday, Jan. 4.

Quite a number of the college students attended the social given by the local C. E. Union at the Presbyterian church Tuesday, Dec. 28.

Mary Pennington is staying at Canyon Hall while Mrs. Smith is in the hospital, ill of pneumonia. Bertha Mae is staying at the home of Mr. T. E. Miles.

New Year's Eve, Elsie Reed entertained some of her friends at her home at 400 Hancock street with a good old country frolic. It being the eve before leap year, the girls had the fun of asking gentlemen friends to escort them to the party.

A number of the college students, with Prof. and Mrs. Perisho as chaperones, took advantage of the snow on New Year's day and went for a hike. They made their way toward Fernwood, and also 'made away' with large quantities of weenies and buns.

Prof. Taggart, Lloyd Edwards, Emmett Gulley and Delbert Replogle started Friday, Dec. 24, on a tramp to the coast, returning the following Tuesday. They report a fine trip although they returned with a good supply of mud, torn clothes and scratched hands.

P. C. SECOND STRINGERS HAVE CLEAN RECORD

The P. C. Seconds still have a clean slate with 4 more victories to their credit. On Dec. 17th in a very closely contested game the Willamette Amateur Athletic Club was defeated 14 to 12.

On Dec. 22nd the second team defeated the Dundee Athletic Club 31 to 25. Gause played a good game for the visitors while Elliott and Edwards were second team stars.

On Jan. 1st the seconds defeated the West Chehalem Athletic Club 36 to 18. Not satisfied with this they again defeated them on Jan. 8th, 32 to 10. The hardest games in the local league will be staged with the Fernwood Athletic Club.

FRESHMEN ENJOY SLEIGH-RIDE

At five o'clock last Wednesday evening the class of 1919 met at the college building with numerous packages of good things to eat. Presently a four horse team and a seven seated sleigh arrived in which the 14 members of the class with Miss McCracken and Professor Taggart were comfortably seated. Everything went splendidly until they reached the Dundee road where somewhat to the surprise and merriment of all they found themselves sitting in the snow. Later Professor Taggart was lost from the rear end but was not long in making himself known. Upon reaching Dundee they stopped at the hotel where they warmed and found hot soup and coffee. Each one having eaten soup, baked beans, sandwiches and apples to his own satisfaction, they started home. Everyone was in good spirits and with the excellent driving of Elmer Warner and Virgil Hinshaw this part of the trip was a singing success.

GREENLEAF ACADEMY

The first semester's work closed December 21 with the largest attendance that has been known during the history of the Academy. The total enrollment was seventy-two. There promises to be practically as large an attendance this semester.

Tuesday evening, Dec. 21, the Athenian Literary Society gave a public Christmas program in the church. The musical part consisted of choruses, quartets and solos. A number of readings were also given to a large and appreciative audience.

During the vacation just closed skating has been the favorite pastime, ponds and irrigation ditches furnishing the ice.

A delegation of fifteen boys, including Prof. Roberts and Harry H. Haworth, represented Greenleaf Academy at the Older Boys Conference of Eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho, which was held at Ontario, Ore., Dec. 10-12. H. H. H.

ALUMNI NOTES

Miss Daisy Newhouse, '13, who is teaching this year at Enterprise, Oregon, was home for the holidays.

Prof. Walter C. Woodward, '97, of Earlham College, has been granted a year's leave of absence and is working in the interests of the Indiana Centennial. His headquarters are at the State House, Indianapolis, Indiana.

Paul V. Maris, '07, is now located at Corvallis, Oregon, where he began his new duties the first of the year as supervisor of farm experts. His work will be in connection with the Oregon Agricultural College.

Walter H. Wilson, '15, who is now pastor of the Friends church at Denver, Colorado, is located at 4206 Vallejo street in that city.

Several old grads were noticed lined up with the rooters at the recent Pacific-Chemawa game, some of them who have helped make basketball history in past years. Among them were Blair, Coulson, Hoskins, Morris and Hester.

AGORETON LITERARY SOCIETY

The Agoreton Literary Society held its fortnightly meeting on the evening of January fourth in the dormitory parlors. After roll call Meade Elliott was appointed "critic of the evening" by the president and the following program was rendered.

A fifteen minute parliamentary drill by Prof. Hawkins.

A vocal solo by Robert Dann. Vacation experiences by Alfred Haworth, Delbert Replogle and Lloyd Edwards.

School life at Earlham by Prof. Taggart.

The next program, which will be given January twenty-first, is to be entirely extemporaneous and promises to be rather exciting. A full attendance is expected.

HEARD AT THE FRESHMAN FROLIC

"Somebody take this bottle of milk!" (Oft repeated.)

"Sit hard on my feet, they're freezin'!"

Prof. T.—"I'm the only one in the crowd, who hasn't been spilled in a snow-bank." (Woe-ful result.)

Prof. L. in Essay Class, "Which do you prefer, Lamb or Bacon?" H. E. H. "Lamb, he is more tender."

Prof. Lewis, in Physcology—"Where do you feel fear?" Gulley—"In my feet."

Readers, please notice Jingling Johnson is with us again.

The Eastern mails were so delayed last week that Prof. T. got three letters from the same place in one day.
