PACIFIC BEATS MULTNOMAH CLUB

Pitching of Gulley Is Big Feature of the Contest, and Score Is Six to One.

Pacific won the first game of the season by defeating the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club on the home diamond Saturday, 6 to 1. Five runs were made in the third inning and one in the eighth by P. C. Multnomah made their counter in the fourth.

The day was ideal for a base ball game and although the crowd was small it was very enthusiastic.

The Multnomah team is composed of ex-college stars but they seemed in need of practice, both as a team and as individuals. They showed good sportsmanship and are anxious for another game at Newberg.

Gulley's pitching was the big feature of the game. He struck out 18 batters and allowed only 3 hits, while the Multnomah pitchers struck out 4 batters and allowed the Quakers 10 hits and a home run. Kramien held Gulley, letting only one ball pass him, and Baron, a first year prep, found the ball every time up, making two hits. H. Elliott's homer brought in two runs and P. Elliott sacrificed on a squeeze play for another counter. Kramien came in on an overthrow. Hinshaw scored the second time when Butt made a safe hit. Pacific had little fielding to do except in the fourth inning, which was the only time the game was not cinched.

Stinson was decidedly the best batter for Multnomah. He pounded out a three bagger which brought in the only run. Jamieson played an errorless game at first and Leader showed his ability as a catcher.

FINAL PROGRAM FOR MAY FESTIVAL

Early Breakfast Will Start Day. Ball Game in Afternoon With Chemawa.

May Day will be celebrated on Saturday, May 5, and the extensive preparations are nearing completion. The main features of the program as planned by the committee in charge are quite similar to those this student body has followed in former years, although the details are very different.

May-morning breakfast very properly begins the day's festivities. Early in the morning—very early in the morning—at 6:30, Miss McCracken, with the aid of the dietetics and food preparation classes will start serving a waffle breakfast. From that time on until 8:30 any one who presents himself with his 25c may break his fast on the campus.

The parade is the second item of interest. From 9:30 until 10 o'clock it will form on the athletic field. Promptly at ten everything and everybody, including automobiles gaily decorated, the Queen, girls in rustic costume, and boys in fantastic and picturesque garb will pass down River St., Meridian St., and First St., and back again to the athletic field.

Here will occur the next five numbers of the day's program. First the Pageant March, composed of every one in costume, will march around the athletic field. Immediately afterwards Norma Harvey will be crowned Queen of the May. The order of the four drills that follow will be determined later. But at present they may be named as follows: Winding of the May pole by the "milkmaids," Weavers' Drill by girls dressed as English peasants, Fairies' Drill by sixteen "fairies" from the court of Titania, and the Grand Revel, in which "milkmaids," "weavers" and "fairies" take part.

A basket lunch on the campus in charge of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be served, cafeteria style, at 12 o'clock. This lunch is for students and for friends of the college, and will be provided by

FACULTY SPEND DAY IN OTHER SCHOOLS

President Pennington made a hit in chapel last Thursday morning when he announced that there would be no school on the next day. The faculty decided to devote Friday to visiting other schools. While the faculty were gone the students enjoyed the holiday in different ways. Some put in the time at hard labor, others worked on the May-Day plans, the base ball men spent most of the afternoon in practice and working on the diamond, and some went on picnics.

President Pennington, Mr. Mills, Mr. Lewis, Miss Sutton, and Miss Lewis visited Reed College. President and Mr. Mills visited the sociology and public speaking classes. They were fortunate in being able to hear Prof. George Herbert Palmer of Harvard University give an extension lecture on philosophy. Miss Sutton and Miss Lewis visited German classes.

Miss McCracken and Miss Johnson visited a short time at Reed and then went to other schools in the city. Miss McCracken was interested in domestic science work and visited those departments in different schools. Miss Johnson spent most of her time

Q CLUB BANQUET IS HELD AT IMPERIAL

The Gold "Q" Club held its annual banquet last Friday night in the dining-room of the Imperial Hotel. The affair was very informal and a spirit of good humor and fun was evident everywhere. Music was furnished by a Victrola from Kienle's music house.

After a very refreshing dinner the following toasts were responded to: "Quakers," by Robert H. Dann; "Cats and Captains," by Harold E. Hinshaw; "Lads and Lassies," by Ross C. Miles; "Umps and Onions," by Emmett Gulley; and "Bats and Batters," by Dale J. Butt. It is needless to say that each toast was delivered very effectively. Some very helpful instructions on the gentle art of "fussing" were expounded and dwelt upon to some considerable length by one of our most prominent "fussers." The audience was enlightened on other more important subjects, but it seems expedient to mention this "one gentle art," since it is so prominent in college life. Professor R. W. Lewis very ably served as toastmaster for the occasion.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the banquet were: Mrs.

Every spring we have a chapel talk and a Crescent editorial on the dangers of spring fever. It is now about time for the crop of 1917. Before there is a chance for any such warnings let us prod ourselves on to harder work. Commencement is but six weeks off and the busiest time of the year is between now and then. Now is the time to take the hint and by consistent work ward off a chapel talk or a Crescent editorial on spring fever.

Next Saturday is our bi-annual May Day Festival. The committee has been working for a long time to make this day a success. The girls have been faithfully drilling for weeks but as yet the majority of the men in school have not done very much. Its up to the men now to do their part to make the day a success. Prepare your part in the best possible way. Let's all get behind now the last few days and make May fifth one of the biggest days in the history of Pacific. There is another thing. There ought to be a great crowd of strangers within our gates on May Day. The more we have the better. Every student ought to be responsible for bringing in several visitors. After we get them here it is up to us to show them a good time, to show them that we have a live school and to show them that we appreciate their presence.

TREFIAN

"How now you secret, black and midnight hags! What is't you do?"

As a fitting memorial to Shakespeare's birthday the Trefians gave a Shakesperian program April 25. An autobiography of Shakespeare by Olive Johnson was a pleasant diversion from the usual ones in the third person. Esther Terrell gave a skillful development of the drama from the old miracle and morality plays up to the time of its perfection under Shakespeare. The merry little drama of Pyramus and Thisbe from "Midsummer's Night Dream" was realistically played with Margaret Hodson as Pyramus, Irene Hodgins as Thisbe, Pauline Terrell as Wall, Lorena Keeney as Moonshine, Mary Sanders as the Lion, and Marie Hall as Prologue. A lively debate, won by the affirmative, "Resolved, that Shakespeare vs. Bacon," by Alta Gumm and Alma Roberts on the affirmative, and Mildred Benson and Hazel Bear on the negative, closed one of the most enjoyable programs of the semester.

in the commercial departments of the various high schools. Mrs. Hodgins, too, visited the high schools spending her time in the latin classes.

Mr. Weesner journeyed to McMinnville and visited the different mathematics classes of the college there. Mr. Perisho remained in Newberg and visited the local high school.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The girls have formed an athletic association and are building a new tennis court in front of Canyon Hall. The court will be completed soon and tournaments held before June.

The new association was voted five per cent. of the money received from the sale of student affairs tickets and with semester dues of 25 cents per member the girls are having regular gymnasium classes and buying equipment. One hour credit has been given for girls athletics and a cut from gym class means the same as a cut from chapel. Next year the girls hope to have inter-collegiate tennis matches and award letters.

Ice cream, pop-corn and candy will be sold on the campus May Day by the girls' association.

ALUMNI NOTES

C. J. Edwards '93 was out from Tillamook for the week-end.

W. S. Parker '99 made a flying trip to Newberg a few days ago. He is now in the mercantile business at LaGrande.

Agnes Hammer Eskelson '03 of Klamath Falls, Ore., has written that she expects to be in Newberg at commencement time.

L. M. Blair '04 spent a few days last week with his brother Calvin, also '04, at Brighton, Ore. The latter is office manager for the Brighton Lumber Co.

Rae S. Langworthy '14 has passed a successful civil service examination and will leave the middle of this month for Tatoosh, Wash., where he will be in the weather bureau service.

Florence Kaufman '15, who has taught English and history in Greenleaf Academy, returned to Newberg early last week.

Eva Campbell '15 is home from teaching in Greenleaf Academy and was in Newberg Saturday afternoon to see Pacific humiliate Multnomah.

Mrs. Fastabend of Astoria, spent several days of last week visiting her daughter, Violet, at the dormitory. She left for her home Thursday morning.

At a meeting yesterday a committee was appointed to form plans that would enable the men in school to prepare themselves for national service. Dr. T. W. Hester has volunteered to instruct a class in first aid.

A number of hikers took advantage of the good day Friday. Francis Elliott, Lestia Newlin, Dale Butt and Harold Hinshaw went forth in the morning seeking exercise and in the afternoon Lyra Miles, Violet Fastabend, Ross Miles and Robert Dann hiked to Skookum Lake.

The Y. M. C. A. members enjoyed a live testimony meeting April 18. Ross Miles read the scripture lesson, after which a number of the fellows expressed a desire to apply the lesson to every day life. Such meetings are always of benefit to the members, who are glad to have them.

Ralph Knight attended the convention of the I. P. A. at McMinnville, April 20 to 22. On Friday evening the conference was addressed by Pres. Doney of Willamette University. Saturday night was the oratorical contest, won by Miss Margaret Garrison of Willamette University.

Two members of our student body had the pleasure of being termed "newly-weds." However the pleasure seems to have been short lived on the part of one of them, for the very next day he was seen in the company of another charming young lady. P. C. was and is greatly shocked and would like an explanation from either Mildred Benson or Ralph Knight.

Undaunted by rain and storm several of the college folk set forth upon a picnic the afternoon of April 20. They found shelter in one of the old buildings of the brick yard and after overcoming many almost insurmountable difficulties cooked their supper. At 8:30 the crowd returned to the dormitory where the evening was spent in singing and ukelele music. Those enjoying the event were the Misses Cook, Hinshaw, Hollingsworth, Johnson, Fastabend, Mrs. Fastabend and Messrs. Miles, Keeney, Wright and Guley.

The first spring tennis tournament is nearly finished, with Edwards and Wiley leading. The doubles tournament is next and will probably be finished before the end of the week. A team will be chosen this week for the matches with Pacific University on May 5.

Mr. S. S. Dow, the Newberg Enterprise man, led the Y. M. C. A. meeting April 25. "The religion of the Lord Jesus Christ is the biggest thing in the world," he said. This statement was proved by a number of illustrations from personal experience and from observation. He stated that the world recognizes christian character and also brought out the importance of a small christian school in developing character. Mr. Dow left a feeling with the fellows that christianity is the only profitable life for a man in the business world.

Why don't you get that Royal Tailored Look?

You young fellows who are trying to get ahead in the world—why don't you consider this matter of good clothes in a cold dollar and cents way? You want good clothes not alone for what they show in the mirror—but for what they show in your pay envelope.

Your business battle is plenty hard enough as it is. Why make it any harder? In these critical times, it takes a mighty clever man to play the part of Success while dressed in the costume of Failure. And the clever man is too smart to work against needless drawbacks.

The Royal Tailors are costumers to the Successful Man. There is something in the very build of a Royal Tailor suit that suggests Success—in its perfection of detail, its infinite precision and fidelity of fit in its richness and sturdiness of construction.

For Royal Tailor clothes are made-to-measure clothes of the very highest calibre.

We have no quarrel to pick with the many excellent makers of ready made clothes.

But, if you want perfection in your clothes, you've got to have your clothes made to fit you.

We want to take your measure for a Royal Tailored Suit. May we? The prices are your prices! $20, $25 and $30.

LAST LYCEUM NUMBER

The last number of the lyceum course for this year was given by Kekuku's Hawaiian Quintet Tuesday evening, April 17. Instead of a quintet there was a quartet as, unfortunately, one member of the company was ill. Several of the selections were especially enjoyed by the audience, among which were those on the steel guitar. The encores for the steel guitar were repeated till the player in desperation leaned up against the piano, mopped his forehead with his handkerchief, and motioned frantically to the rest of the company, just off the platform, to come to his assistance. One member of the company showed unusual dexterity in handling the ukelele. Even those who were not partial to ukelele music had to admit that he produced all the music possible from the instrument. "Listen to the Mocking Bird," "Tipperary," "My Rosary," and "Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You," were all recognized and appreciated.
