PACIFIC WINS FIRST CONFERENCE GAME, 6-0

Quakers Score on Monmouth in Fourth Quarter

The first game of the football season opened with the Oregon Normal School kicking off to P. C. on the teachers' gridiron. Upon receiving the ball the Quakers sprang a surprise criss-cross on the teachers that fairly took them off their feet. The first quarter of the game passed without any spectacular plays and the ball was in the middle of the field practically all of the time. The two teams were just feeling each other's pulses.

Although the teams played evenly, the schoolmams showed a lack of practice in the number of fumbles they made. However, the P. C. boys were jubilant, and things looked very favorable for them. Everybody was happy as they rested between halves and were very eager to get back into the game.

The few words of counsel and advice that Coaches Michener and Armstrong gave the boys made them feel that much better. As far as spirit was concerned the game was won at the end of the first half.

In the third quarter Captain Winslow's men got within striking distance of the enemy's goal but the Professors rallied and our boys failed to make their yardage. The Normal School team completed some very neat forward passes. One of these was just right for Ralph Hester to intercept. That had a tendency to take the heart out of the opposition.

In the last quarter came the opportunity, and Walter Cook, who played a heady game throughout, took advantage of it and carried the ball in a wide end run, making the only touchdown that was made in the game. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful. The remaining eight and a half minutes were the longest in history and the outcome of the game was doubtful several times.

The game ended after Cook had punted from far into his own territory to the center of the field. The game ended with the score 6 to 0 in favor of Pacific. It was impressive to see the Monmouth and the Newberg boys walking off the field arm in arm. They served hot-dogs and coffee to our boys after the game that were superior.

The men who brought honor to Pacific College were Captain Marion Winslow, Gettman, Nordyke, H. Hester, R. Hester, Hutchens, Sandoz, Gatch, Cook, Morrill, Crane, and Schmeltzer.

GLEE CLUB FORMED

A number of the men of school who are interested in music, met Tuesday evening, October 5, to organize a Men's Glee club. There has been a desire to assemble such a chorus for a number of years but the desires never materialized. This year Professor Hull offered to lead such an organization, providing the students would cooperate. That was all that was necessary to start it rolling. Walter Cook was elect-

MANY P. C. STUDENTS ATTEND STATE FAIR

School was dismissed Friday, October 1st, to attend the Oregon state fair. Such preparations as engaging cars, choosing class chaperones and wishing for good weather were made in advance. As the old saying runs, "If wishes were horses, beggars might ride," and the rain came down in goodly amounts. But nothing like that would stop Pacific students, for at seven-thirty cars and trucks were waiting to take the merry crowd.

Throughout the day different ones were attracted to their particular interests. No doubt the fancy work was studied with great care by some, while others spent hours looking at the automobiles. Such exhibits as the Oregon State Hospital, State penitentiary, Tuberculosis Hospital, State School for the Deaf, School for the Blind, State Training School for Boys, Industrial School for Girls, Oregon Employment Institution for the Adult Blind, and many others were an education in themselves. The flower exhibit was beauty in itself and demonstrated the wonders of nature. Music of all kinds furnished entertainment throughout the day.

Although a hungry crowd gathered promptly at twelve o'clock to eat their lunch, the afternoon attractions were so numerous that not much time was spent.

As a note of interest and history of Oregon, the stage coach with its early pioneers inside was well worth seeing.

A tired crowd started home about five o'clock satisfied that the day had been well spent. Students extend a vote of thanks to those who made it possible for them to attend the fair.

STAG MIX BIG SUCCESS

Thursday evening of September 23rd is a memorable date to some of P. C.'s illustrious and potent young men. Gathered around a big bonfire, about forty Academy and College men met to exchange greetings of superlative proximity. Professor Armstrong and "Cookie" opened the evening's entertainment with a few chosen and well placed marks of "Palmistry." Burton Frost learned the secret of how one man lifts seven, while Robert Merrill came to the realization that Armstrong, Michiner and Winslow had reached the stage of "Perfection" in the art of playing duoble-hot-hand."

After dispersing with a goodly supply of "weenies" and buns the President of the College Y. M. C. A., Ralph Hester, gave in concise words what the "Y" should be and mean to each one of the students. Words of welcome by Pres. Pennington and Prof. Armstrong are not to be forgotten soon.

CLASS RINGS CHOSEN

A short and snappy business meeting of the Academy senior class was held Tuesday, September 27, after chapel, at which time the seniors selected their class rings. The rings have been ordered and will probably arrive in about three weeks.

ed president and Wendell Hutchens, vice-president of the club.

As a culmination of a great deal of agitation that has been about the campus for the last few years, a group of students gathered on September 28 for the purpose of organizing a Dramatic society, the purpose of the society being to promote an interest in dramas in Pacific College and to present a high type of drama. The following officers were elected: President, Sanford Brown; vice-president, Josephine Whitney; secretary, Geneva Street; treasurer, Wilma Evans. A committee composed of Wendell Hutchens, Rose Ellen Hale, and Lolita Hinshaw was appointed by the chair for the purpose of drawing up a constitution. Prof. R. W. Lewis is the faculty adviser. This is the first society of this type in the history of the college.

FOOTBALL SCHEDULE

NEARLY COMPLETE

Coach Michener, assisted by Professor Armstrong, is working Captain Winslow's eleven into perfection for the contest with Reed College Thursday. By rounding off some of the rough edges of the plays, Coach Michener hopes to repeat the process of victory in Thursday's game.

The following football schedule has been arranged:

- Reed College—Thursday, October 14, at Reed.
- Oregon Normal—Friday, October 22, at P. C.
- Albany College—Friday, October 29, at P. C.
- Open Date—Friday, November 5.
- Albany College—November 11 or 12, at Albany.
- Linfield College—Friday, (November 19, at P. C.
- Chamawua Indians—Thursday, November 25, at Chamawan.

FRESHMEN HOLD SOCIAL

The Freshmen of Pacific College gathered at the Holding residence on Tuesday evening, October 5th. The covered dish supper that followed was full of high-spots and delicious concoctions which cannot adequately be described. Miss Genevieve Badley as chairman of the social committee was a very able hostess. The prime motive of the affair was to help the class members to become better acquainted with one another and in a way in which they cannot become acquainted with merely the class-room contacts. The affair was very successful in every respect. The Freshmen agree with everyone in that they have the liveliest class in P. C. Ask the Sophies!

RECEPTION TO STUDENTS

HELD AT FRIENDS CHURCH

A reception for all college students was held at the Friends church Friday evening, September 25. The following program was given: Several songs by the church quartet; a vocal solo by Homer Hester; readings by Marie Hester, Della Hanville, and Gladys Haworth. Following a social hour, punch and wafers were served.

STUDENT BODY ELECTS PRESIDENT

New Amendment to Constitution Adopted at Meeting

Walter Cook, Senior, was elected president of the Associated Student Body at a meeting on Thursday, September 23. Mr. Cook fills the vacancy made by Paul Brown, the former president, who graduated from summer session at Willamette University.

Wendell Hutchens' resignation as assistant editor of Crescent was accepted.

Other officers elected to fill vacancies in Student Body offices are:

Hilma Hendrickson, Forensics Manager.

Wendell Hutchens, Crescent Editor.

Philip Gafeh, Assistant Editor.

Genevieve Badley, Song Leader.

Esther Haworth, Secretary and Treasurer, Old Student Association.

Glen Brown, Representative of Student Loan Fund.

An amendment to the constitution was adopted. This amendment provides for a joint faculty-student committee. The purpose of this committee is to encourage cooperation and to provide a means of communicating with the faculty.

It was also decided that no student affairs tickets be issued until the dollar is paid to complete the three dollars Student Affairs fee decided on last summer.

ANNUAL Y. W. C. A.

FROLIC IS HELD

The annual Y. W. C. A. Frolic was held Thursday afternoon, September 23, in the College building, and was attended by most of the girls of the College and Academy.

The first part of the Frolic was spent in playing games, after which the Academy girls were introduced to their College sisters.

Each year it is the custom in P. C. for each College girl to be given a little sister from the Academy. In this manner the big and little sisters become good friends and a spirit of friendship is created between College and Academy girls. Each Academy girl found her College sister by playing the game, "Clap in and Clap Out," after which grapes and wafers were served.

Y. M. C. A. RECEPTION

FOR NEW STUDENTS

The annual Y. M. and Y. W. reception for new students and faculty members was held at the college Friday, September 17. Several groups were formed for playing games. The climax of the evening was reached when President Pennington and his partner, Miss Mary C. Sutton, carried the potato for a touchdown in the potato race.

Marie Hester and Marion Winslow, representing the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. respectively, welcomed the new students to P. C., after which Eskimo pies, dioxies and wafers were served.

"GREETINGS"

We, the members of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., wish to extend a cordial welcome to those who are in our midst for the first time.

We realize that the new surroundings and environments of college life have to replace those that you were formerly accustomed to. It is the purpose of the Christian associations to help you make this adjustment as rapidly as possible. There is perhaps no form of college activity that plays as great a part in the lives of the student and faculty as does the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A.

All life's struggles for development are difficult even under the most favorable circumstances, but the character of youth may be likened to a plant. We realize that a plant will grow without cultivation, but how much more beautiful and lustrous will be the plant if it is cared for in a garden by a capable, experienced gardener where its development can be cultivated, than the one that is left to eke out its existence among the bramble without the garden wall.

The Christian associations are the gardens; here the lives of the students are cultivated, trained, I dare say, not by any human hand, but by the hand and spirit of the Almighty who, desirous of having us at our best, continually purges us of those things that might hinder or hold us back in any way from being of true service to our fellow men.

It is often thought that the "Y" is a formal cut and dried affair consisting of religious rituals. This is, however, not the case. Our associations are built on the four-square plan—Physical, Mental, Social and Spiritual—and it is our purpose to be consistent in our relations to one another and develop all four of these plans.

As a plant cannot live on dust alone but must also have water and air, so youth cannot live on one phase of development alone, or if he does he will be a dwarfed, unbalanced product, and will not be able to be at his best in the world of service and usefulness in which he will have to take his place in later life.

Then, in conclusion, let us ask for your cooperation in this matter of so great an importance—the forming and building of human character.—A. H. W.

"SUPPORT"

P-E-P! Has Pacific got any? Anyone that asks that question should dream about the 6 to 0 victory over Oregon Normal School at Monmouth last Friday. That was certainly start enough for any team to win a championship on. Now the proposition is to keep it. Just boost! boost! boost! Next Thursday we will play Reed College at Portland. That's only about three days, and twenty-five miles away; just a good chance to show how much loyalty the students really have. It's easy enough to turn out to a game on the home field, but if fifty students were to be lined up on the sidelines at Reed with fifty flashes of color and fifty noisy mouths going all the time, the team would realize that they were fighting for the honor of an institution, and not just for the love of battle!

This is your team. Support it!

SURPRISE PARTY

A birthday surprise party was given Miss Gladys Haworth, September 16, by a few friends at her home. The evening was spent in recalling "old time" experiences and in playing Rook, after which birthday cake and sherbet were served. Miss Haworth is teaching in Sheridan, Oregon, this year.

Prof. Perisho (in biology): "What animal makes the nearest approach to man?"
Joe Whitney: "The mosquito."

Y. M. MEETINGS SUCCESSFUL

The Young Men's Christian Association held its first meeting of this school year Sept. 22nd. The purpose and value of the College "Y" was presented and followed by words of testimony from several men as to what the Christian association has meant and does mean to them individually.

The Association meeting of Sept. 29 was led by Professor C. G. McClean, who spoke on "College and the Christian Life." No fellow present left the meeting without a stronger realization that the one important factor in life is to build firmly on the foundation Jesus Christ. If one expects to broaden out into fields of usefulness we must of necessity live a consistent daily Christian life. This is done only by prayer, meditation, and Bible study.

Bible study groups have been organized in the Avademy and College. Marion Winslow and Merlin Brown will lead the Academy classes and Prof. McClean the College class. Interest is manifested in no small degree, so that a profitable time is assured to any fellow who wishes to meet with one of the groups each Monday noon. Bring a lunch and feast as you study.

ATHENA SOCIETY ELECTS

NEW PRESIDENT

Margaret McClean, Academy senior, was unanimously elected president of the Athena Literary Society to succeed Genevieve Badly, retiring president, at a meeting of the society September 22. Other officers of the society are: Vice-president, Bernice Carlyle; secretary, Mabel Kendall; treasurer, Byrle Hale; critic, Bertha May Pennington; faculty advisor, Miss Esther Binford.

The business meeting was followed by a short social time, during which peaches, ice cream and wafers were served.

CHAPEL NOTES

Wednesday, Sept. 15

Prof. McClean gave his chautauqua speech in the opening chapel of the new school year, speaking on "Bread and Butter—and What Else?" as his topic. Prpf. Hull and Mrs. Eva Hummer Hull delighted the audience with their special music for the morning.

Friday, Oct. 8

Taking as his scripture text Rom. 8:14, Dr. Lee spoke to the students upon the part that man must play in the wonderful plan of God. A man's life is not an isolated, individual life but rather a part of the whole creation of humanity—a part, though small, in the great structure of God. Every man's life is a part of God's Plan and if he fails, his niche in life can never again be filled.

Sin in the world was not originally a plan of God but now the universe is in distress because of sin. Wrong views of life come from the low views of sin. Man, not God, put the curse upon creation. Man has failed, not God.

The earnest expectations of the Creator awaiteth the Sons of God, and not until man forsakes sin and seeks for the higher life, the higher ideals, will the expectations of God come true. Every man's life is a blueprint of God but the Great Blueprint shows all things of the universe working toward the one center—the revealing of the children of God.

The world's one want, God's great desire, is that men be godly men. Gladstone said, "Talk of the questions of the day, there is only one question and that is, 'What of the Gospel of Christ?'" Every question of man can be solved through the Gospel of Christ.

Long and patiently does the Savior work with us, striving to redeem His own, to bring each one within the fold, that each one of us might become children of God.

The two questions concerning each one of us, which we must answer, "Will you and I be there? Will we help someone else be a part of the great plan, to be with the Sons of God in the final completion of the great structure of God?"

Y. W. INSTALLATION

Twenty-three new members joined the ranks of the Y. W. girls Wednesday morning, October 6.

The installation was a pretty service and an impressive one. The new members marched into the darkened chapel while Ruth Holding softly played a lovely violin solo. On a small table before the group of girls stood a candelabra in which three candles burned. Marie Hester, our president, read the scripture and Lolita Hinshaw led in prayer. Esther Haworth, accompanied by Hilma Hendrickson, sang a beautiful solo.

Then the president explained to the new girls the significance of the three candles, representing faith, love, and service and the meaning these three qualities should have in our lives. The prospective members then rose and read the Y. W. C. A. pledge together, after which they stepped through the large blue triangle, depicting their entrance into Y. W. and its activities, and lighted their small candles in the three large candles of faith, love, and service. Ruth Holding played again during the ceremony.

Lolita Hinshaw and Lela Gulley sang a charming duet, accompanied by Genevieve Badley.

Reverting for a moment to the business side of the organization, Lolita Hinshaw was elected treasurer to fill the vacancy left by Rachel Lundquist. Miss Johnson, the faculty advisor, then dismissed the meeting.

FACULTY NOTES

At the first meeting of the faculty this fall election of officers of the faculty and appointment of committees was made as follows:

Chairman—President Pennington.
Vice-Chairman—Prof. Perisho.
Secretary—Miss Johnson.
Treasurer—Esther Binford.
Manager Book Store—Prof. Macy.
College Excuse Officer—Miss Miles.
Academy Excuse Officer—Mrs. Hodgkin.
Commercial Excuse Officer—Miss Johnson.

Representative on the College Athletic Council—Prof. Macy.

Representative on the Athletic Council of the Willamette Valley League—Prof. Perisho.

"Poo Bah"—Prof. Armstrong (see him for explanation).

Registrar—Prof. Conover.

Discipline Committee—Prof. Lewis, Miss Binford, Miss Miles, Prof. Conover. Advanced Standing and Extra Work—Mrs. Hodgkin, Prof. Weesner, Miss Johnson, Prof. McClean, Prof. Conover.

Student Affairs—Miss Miles, Miss Watland, Mrs. Hodgkin, Prof. Armstrong, Prof. Macy.

Athletics—Prof. Michiner, Miss Binford, Prof. Perisho, Prof. Armstrong, Miss Watland.

Three members of the faculty, Pres. Pennington, Prof. Perisho and Prof. Armstrong went salmon fishing Saturday, Sept. 25th. Perisho and Armstrong let President Pennington catch three salmon, one weighing 10 pounds, one 12 pounds, and the other 18 pounds. Ask Prof. Lewis to give you the details of the faculty men's 5 a. m. hike to the top of Chehalem Mountain.

C. E. R. INITIATES

The Club El Regedeo had its initiation for the new members Thursday evening in the gym, and a very merry time was reported by all—the old members. The members taken in were: Irvin Diment, William Coleman, Prof. Armstrong, Charles Crane, Philip Holding and Raymond Neal.

During the course of the evening good old fashioned hot-hand, a trail hunt through the canyon, several blind-fold games, the decrees for Friday, and several other events, were experienced. A peanut feed, dixies, eskimo pies, and cookies, were the nourishment of the evening, after which the new members were required to sweep the floor.

With the new members coming in, a very good year is anticipated by the club, and we hope that the new members will get as much good and pleasure out of the club as the old members have.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION MEETS

The men's athletic association started its year's work with a business meeting. The death of Wilbur Elliott last spring caused a vacancy in the office of treasurer. Eugene Sandoz was elected to fill this position. It was also found that the Academy representative to the student council had been provided for but never elected. Harold Smith was given this honor by an overwhelming majority.

Probably most of the students are quite familiar with athletic activity of the college but do not realize that there must be a managing hand in it all.

"Laughs"

Teacher: "Joseph, what are you going to give your little brother for a birthday present?"

Joseph: "I dunno, last year I gave him the chicken pox."

"Ireland should be the richest country in the world."

"Why is that?"

"Her capital has been Dublin for many years."

CLASS OFFICERS ELECTED

What is a school without a class spirit? It would be hard to say, and still harder to find any life in it. The spirit in P. C. began to awaken with the election of class officers. Although some seemed to be bashful about making the names public, the following have been gathered partly through the officers themselves and partly through the class reporters.

SOME THINGS LEARNED ON REGISTRATION DAY

"Hello! How are you?" Aren't registration days the happiest times? Every one meeting everyone else. It's too bad all the old students couldn't come back; but of course, that would be impossible. These are some of those that can't be greeted in Pacific this year:

- Paul Brown—Married and living at Springbrook.
- Gladys Haworth—Teaching school in Sheridan.
- Helen (Holding) Schutz—Married to Wesley Schutz and residing at 230 Main St., Amasbury, Mass.
- Henry Beard—Living in Newberg.
- Mary Conway—At home.
- Eugene Hibbs—Working in Idaho.
- Raymond Johnson—Attending Linfield College.
- Ivor Jones—Working in Colorado.
- Alice Laudien—Attending the University of Oregon.
- Zella Straw—Residing at Sherwood.
- Emmabell Woodworth—Attending the University of Oregon.
- Wilbur Elliott—Deceased, May 23, 1926.
- Clare Howard—Working in Idaho.
- Velda Livingston—Attending the College of Idaho.
- Rachel Lundquist—Residing at Entiat, Wash.
- Glenn Parks—Attending school at Drake University.
- Ihez (Schmoe)Vorhees—Married and residing in Colorado.
- Fleeta Leland—On University afloat.
- Donald Atkinson—Married to Alma Beard and living in Newberg.
- Harold Hodson—Residing in Newberg.
- Dorothy Elliott—At home in Tacoma.
- Donald Galbreath—Attending Newberg High School.
- Fred Rucher—Attending Newberg High School.
- Alma (Beard) Atkinson—Married and living in Newberg.
- Lena Gully—Attending Newberg High School.
- Kathryn Nickell—Attending Newberg High School.
- Evelyn Hodson—Attending Ontario High School.
- Winona Smith—Attending school of music in Portland.
- Wesley Hollingsworth—Working at Reedsport, Ore.
- Winona Byington—Attending Walla Walla College.
- Ethlyn Root—Attending Linfield College.
- Delford Knapp—Attending Linfield College.

TEAM LOOKS WELL

Coach Michiner's men scrimmaged the High school squad on our field Thursday, September 30th. Although this was the first actual scrimmage of the season and some of the men were new at the game they showed a lot of pep and some good fight. Nordyke and Gettman, both letter men, were consistent yardage gainers. Gatch, who is holding down his position at left half like a veteran, put a 'monkey-wrench' in many of the High school's plays. Hutchens, who for the past two years has been end on the Varsity, has been changed to center and is getting on to the ropes of his new position with a great deal of real 'football sense.' Glenn Brown was fairly smearing the Tigers until he had his nose broken in a terrific tackle. Several people have suggested a brand new paraffine nose for Brown similar to the one so famous in prize-fight circles, but he is seemingly quite satisfied with his new 'layout.' Winslow, Sandoz, Morrill, H. Hester, and R. Hester combine with Brown and Hutchens in an unusually stiff line. Cook's generalship at quarterback is hard to beat.

Retha T.: "Oh, fine! But the geese made so much noise eating that Esther and I couldn't hear each other think!"

Wendell Hutchens (in psych. class): "How long can a man live without brains?"

Prof. Conover: "Mr. Hutchens, that remains to be seen."

LIBRARY NOTES

The library from time to time will take on various changes. The noise of hammer and saw was heard the first few days of school when new shelves were made under the windows. Reference books and bound magazines now occupy this space. If you can't find books in their old familiar places, just ask the librarian, for probably she has moved them.

The full time librarians will be more than busy accessioning, classifying and cataloging new books, yet with all this she is glad to give whatever assistance she can to students and faculty.

Make the library your own, a place for study, and a place for pleasure reading. Between fifty and sixty magazines come to the library regularly. Do you read them? There is a wealth of knowledge stored away in the many books that line the shelves. You have lost your greatest opportunity if you don't take time to pick up a magazine or book, if it is just to turn the pages in a hurried glance.

Football is known familiarly as the pigskin game. We suppose that it is because of the many rooters it has.
