STUDENT BODY ELECTS NEW EXECUTIVES

Former Crescent Editor to Head Administration Group

The annual student body elections were held Monday, March 7. The new officers are:

- President—Wendell Hutchens.
- Vice-President—Mildred Choate.
- Secretary—Ruth Holding.
- Treasurer—William Sweet.
- Forensics Mgr.—Bernard Newby.
- Crescent Editor—Philip Gatch.
- Asst. Crescent Editor—Frank Cole.
- B. M. Srescent—Homer Hester.
- C. M. Crescent—Oscar Eskelson.
- Yell King—Donald Crozier.
- Song Leader—Rachel Lundquist.
- Property Mgr.—Rosa Aebischer.
- Sec. Treas. O. S. Assn.—Retha Tucker.
- Rep. Student Loan Fund—Stanley Kendall.

This is a very promising looking group of executives, and everyone looks for big things from them. All the students will surely cooperate with them to help make this one of the biggest years in the history of the college.

- The retiring officers are:
- President—Walter Cook.
- Vice-President—Retha Tucker.
- Secretary—Rose Ellen Hale.
- Treasurer—Ben Huntington.
- Forensics Mgr.—Hilma Hendrickson.
- Crescent Editor—Wendell Hutchens.
- Asst. Crescent Ed.—Philip Gatch.
- Business Manager—Marion Winslow.
- Circulation Mgr.—Arthur Winters.
- Yell King—Donald Crozier.
- Song Leader—Genevieve Badley.
- Prop. Mgr.—Mildred Choate.
- Sec. Treas. O. S. Assn.—Esther Harworth.

Rep. Stu. Loan Fund—Glen Brown. This group did their work well and go out with all the good wishes of the student body.

The report of Marion Winslow, business manager of The Crescent during the past year, shows the Crescent has had a splendid year, and that it has been ably managed. There is $143.38 in the bank to turn over to the new Crescent staff, while the year before they turned over less than $10.00. The new staff is very enthusiastic and every indication points toward a bigger and better Crescent.

MAY PEARSON HONORED

Mrs. Minnie Owen was hostess at a farewell dinner at her home on Villa Road Sunday, March 4, honoring Miss May Pearson. The guests were Misses Hilma Hendrickson, Rachel Lundquist, Edris Raycraft, Messrs. Marion Winslow, Robert Smith, Herbert Owen, Homer Nordyke, the guest of honor, Miss May Pearson, and the hostess, Mrs. Owen.

ATHLETIC BANQUET IS SPONSORED BY W. A. A.

The banquet given in the college gym Friday evening, March 4, under the auspices of the W. A. A. proved to be one of the most brilliant affairs of the college year. Old gold and blue predominated in the color scheme, both in the streamers and the large bouquets of daffodils. Five tables, each seating thirty guests, extended the width of the entire building and were decorated to represent the five major sports of the college season, football, basket ball, tennis, baseball and volley ball. Thirty attractively uniformed waitresses served a four course dinner to one hundred and fifty guests.

Miss Gladys Hadley presided in a very delightful manner. The following toasts to represent volley ball, basket ball, football, tennis and baseball respectively were given:

- Service ..... Miss Esther Binford
- Shoestrings ..... Miss Rachel Lundquist
- Kick-off ..... Prof. D. W. Michener
- Nets ..... Miss Hilma Hendrickson
- Diamonds ..... Pres. L. T. Pennington

Following the toast program were a number of presentations by members of the women's gym classes. The first group was a number of singing games presented by twelve girls in a very commendable manner. The second presentation was the "Puppets," impersonated by Jane Dolph, Heroine; Esther Baird, hero; Dorothea Nordyke, villain; Doris Kivett, policeman. The familiar Dutch Twins, Rachel Lundquist and Inez Vorheeg, in the bright blue frocks and wooden shoes of the "real Dutch," presented a characteristic Dutch dance. Bernice Carlisle and Ruth Holding gave a Pierrot and and Pierette number, and as the final number of the evening Beryl Hale, Rose Ellen Hale and Mildred Streeter, dressed in the plaid of Highland lassies, presented the Scotch Highland Fling in a very skillful manner. The program was concluded with the chorus from the Alma Mater.

ELLIOTTS ENTERTAIN SOPHS

The Sophomore class enjoyed a pleasant evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott on February 26. Old times were talked over with much laughter resulting. Mrs. Elliott had started a "Who's who among the Sophomores," and some more were added by the class. For instance, one was "A legal document, and a confection; can you guess who it is?"

Later in the evening they gathered around the piano and sang while refreshments were prepared. Since two members of the class, Bill Sweet and Wesley Hollingsworth, had had birthdays during February, Mrs. Elliott had a cake baked to celebrate the occasion. Many sandwiches, chocolate, and all of the cake were soon consumed by the Sophs and they went their separate ways, thankful to the Elliots for giving their home and companionship for an evening.

Y. W. TO GIVE COMEDY SOON

On April 1, 1927, the Y. W. C. A. are going to give a play, "The Modern Cinderella." It is a charming comedy and will be well worth saving your pennies to see. The admission prices will be: adults, 35c, children, 25c.

Remember the date, April 1, 1927, the price, 35c and 25c, and the place, Wood-Mar Hall.

STUDENTS ATTEND STATE ORATORICAL CONTEST

About twenty-five P. C. students, with the orator and coach, attended the annual I. O. A. O. contest which was held at Willamette Friday night, March 11. There were corresponding representations from all of the colleges of Oregon with the exception of Albany College and the U. of O., which had no speakers in the Old Line. Willamette students started the evening with a peppy song, which was followed by songs from all of the schools represented.

President Davey of Willamette University presided as chairman of the following program:

- Music.
- Oration—"The Eternal Conflict," Eugene Bible University.
- Oration—"Benito Mussolini, a Menace to World Peace," Pacific University.
- Oration—"The Strange Drama," O. O. C.
- Oration—"Portentous Symbol," Willamette University.
- Music.
- Oration—"A Higher Student Ideal," Pacific College.
- Oration—"The Levantine Liberation," Linfield College.
- Oration—"Woman Aspires," Ashland Normal.
- Oration—"Master Time," O. N. S.

The different coaches of oratory from the schools represented acted as the judges of the contest and returned the following decision: First place, "The Strange Drama," O. A. C. Second place, "Portentous Symbols," Willamette University. Third place, "Benito Mussolini, a Menace to World Peace," Pacific University. A bronze statuette of Lincoln will be presented to the orator who won first place.

Following the contest an informal reception was held in the Adelante Halls.

Glen Brown very ably represented Pacific in this contest with the oration, "A Higher Student Ideal," which showed a great deal of personal thought, and was very forcefully delivered.

ATHENA SOCIETY INITIATES

The new members of the Athena Literary society were formally initiated Friday evening, March 11. With the gym as headquarters, the prospective members, promiscuously garbed, went with the old members on their respective ways, singing and begging for food. La Verne Hutchens had a difficult time securing food for her starving aunt and uncle, who had just come from the poor house. Strange as it may seem, her pleading did not strike a sympathetic chord in the hearts of the more fortunate. Returning to the gym, all partook of the spoils. Fruits, cakes, sandwiches, nuts, as well as oat meal, and Epsom salts were served.

The new members are: Arloine Davey, La Verne Hutchens, Vera Bauman, Rosa Bisbee, Irene Brown, Mary Schmeltzer.

Y. W. CABINET GETS ADVICE

Miss Heller talked to the Cabinet Girls on the evening of Wednesday, March 9. She gave them many new ideas for next year's work that should prove helpful. There were valuable suggestions for committee work that every chairman should consider. As they talked they were partaking of a delightful supper provided by the Cabinet Girls.

PROSPECTS GOOD FOR BASEBALL SEASON

Junior-Senior Team Wins From Freshman in Opening Game

Prospects for baseball are exceedingly bright this year, with the return of eight letter men and a host of promising new material, according to Coach Michener. The letter men returning are: William Sweet, Wendell Hutchens, Homer Nordyke, Eldon Everest, Robert Smith, Harry Smeltzer, Wesley Schaad and Walter Cook. With eight letter men as a nucleus, Coach Michener hopes to build up a squad which will make a good showing for Pacific. Michener, who took a summer course in coaching last year at University of Washington, has some new "stuff" to show the boys.

Beside the letter men who are turning out are: Gum, Gettman, Eskelson, Morrill, Cole, Yergen, S. Brown, M. Brown, Winslow, Huntington, G. Brown, H. Hester, and R. Hester, who will make the veterans hustle to hold their positions.

Varsity practice will start as soon as the class games are finished, which will probably be some time next week. Several practice games with the high school and other teams will probably be played before the conference season starts. The tentative schedule has been made as follows:

Pacific vs. Oregon Normal—April 29, here.

Pacific vs. Oregon Normal—May 6, there.

Pacific vs. Albany—May 13, here.

Pacific vs. Albany—May 20, there.

Pacific vs. Linfield—No date—here.

Pacific vs. Linfield—No date—there.

The following is the schedule of the inter-class games:

First game—Junior-Senior vs. Freshmen.

Second game—Second Years-Fifth Years vs. First Years-Third Years.

Third game—Sophs vs. Junior-Senior.

Fourth game—Freshmen vs. Second Years-Fourth Years.

Fifth game—Junior-Senior vs. First Years-Third Years.

Sixth game—Sophs vs. Second Years-Fourth Years.

Seventh game—First Years-Third Yrs. vs. Freshmen.

Eighth game—Junior-Senior vs. Second Years-Fourth Years.

Ninth game—Freshmen vs. Sophs.

These inter-class games are to be played at 4 o'clock and as fast as the weather will permit. The team winning the greatest number of games will be declared the champions and be eligible to challenge the faculty for the championship of the school.

The first inter-class game, which was played Wednesday, the 9th, between the Junior-Senior and Freshmen, was won by the former 5 to 4.

WE'RE OFF!

A new Crescent year has begun. The new staff has been chosen and have taken their places in literary activities. Under the old staff the school publication has been very successful and we wish to take this opportunity to congratulate them on their good work. We wish to applaud the splendid assistance and hearty cooperation which the student body as a whole gave the old staff. Keep up the good work. This is your paper and we want you to feel so. If you have a story, or joke, or something that will interest the student body, send it in. Remember that party or picnic? The Crescent reporters are not able to know about everything. Jot it down and send it in. The students might be interested in it. We would like to have more material than we can print—much more. In this way we can choose what we consider the best articles and improve the paper. Help to make a banner year for P. C.

We, the Crescent staff, wish to express our appreciation of the honor and responsibility placed upon us. It is our sincere hope that we will not disappoint you in our work for the coming year.

All aboard! Let's go!

F. L. C.

HARK YE—MUSICIANS

Those who represented Pacific at the I. O. A. O. Friday night felt rather conspicuous at times because of the lack of songs. Willamette led out—they sang well. They knew their songs and they had a number of them.

Do we fully realize that in just four weeks Pacific is going to have the privilege of acting as host to the other colleges of Oregon? And do we want any school to show up better than our own? We sing our Alma Mater song—it is beautiful and we love it, but it will not do for every occasion.

We need more songs; not of the "fight" type but something we can sing on April the eighth when the state Peace contest will be held here. In our hand books are the words to a song we have nearly forgotten—let's revive it. Or doesn't someone feel like writing a song? Put those sentiments into words and add a tune—we need them.

The Song Leader.

TUNE UP, FOLKS

What would you think if Pacific College would turn out a fifteen piece orchestra this year? Would it be of any use to the advertising of P. C., and would it lend any enthusiasm to college affairs, such as plays, debates, and entertainments of all kinds?

We have gone several years without one, maybe we could get along several years more as we now are, but let's be willing to try something new now and then. If you can play an orchestra instrument, get it tuned up and enroll with the orchestra as soon as possible; if not, don't knock it unless you have reason to.

H. S.

NEW SYSTEM AT U. OF O.

We notice that there is an entirely new system being adopted at the University of Oregon this year. The freshmen and sophomores are under strict discipline and are organized much as a junior college. The juniors and seniors, however, are given more liberty than previously. They are required to attend only a few classes each week and the rest of their time is spent in research as they see fit.

This plan has never been thoroughly tried before but it is thought by educational leaders that it will prove very satisfactory.

W. H. H.

PRESIDENT IS IN DEMAND

President Pennington had a rather busy week end as far as speaking engagements were concerned.

Friday evening he was the speaker at the opening session of the annual convention of the Multnomah County Christian Endeavor Union, his subject being "Why Live the Christian Life?"

Sunday morning the faculty male quartet were in charge of the service at the First Friends Church in Portland, singing three selections. President Pennington preached the morning sermon from the text, "He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass."

Sunday evening the churches of Dayton held a union service with the high school as guests and the high school basket ball team, which won the county basket ball championship, as guests of honor. President Pennington was the speaker of the evening.

NATIONAL Y. W. SECRETARY SPEAKS TO PACIFIC GIRLS

The girls of the Y. W. have enjoyed immensely the visit of Miss Heller, national Y. W. secretary. In speaking to the girls on Wednesday morning she expressed the desire that it might be possible to see different parts of the world at one time. It is hard to realize that girls of different races have the same purpose in Y. W. as the white girls. The place of the Y. W. colored girl in the world is one of real service. The colored race has made contributions to our civilization, and many of their people have reached great fame. The colored girls in Y. W. face the problems as they exist and try to realize what Christianity really means.

Another group of girls in Y. W. work are the industrial girls. They come from a background very different than the girls who have better advantages. They have really sacrificed for what they have gained.

All types of girls meet together in the Y. W. conferences from time to time, and each type of girl has something worth while to give. The girls study the social problems together, learn of international relationships, and find out what fine things are coming out of all countries. Friendships formed at such a conference are lasting. It is a sharing of the ideas and ideals of others.

It is a great privilege that the girls can be members of such a national organization as the Y. W. C. A. It is a working together to bring to this earth the Kingdom of God. It is trying to learn the Jesus way of love, and trying to know how to live it.

Miss Heller gave the girls a broader vision of the world in which they live. They are hoping that she will visit them again soon.

DEPUTATION GROUP ACTIVE

The college Deputation group has been quite active in the past few weeks, holding meetings in many communities and a number of the local churches.

Sunday, March 13, the group held two regular services, and assisted Professor McClean in a service held at the Sunnyside Friends church of Portland.

Gladys Hadley presided at the meeting conducted at the local Nazarene church, and Oscar Eskleson led the devotions. Walter Cook gave the morning message, which was followed by a duet by Lela Gulley and Philip Gatch, accompanied by Ila Tozler.

The Rex meeting was conducted by Stanley Kendall, with Margaret Jackson and Rosa Aebischer bringing the messages. Bertha May Pennington read the Scriptures. Professor Oliver Weesner accompanied the group.

INTERMEDIATE C. E. SOCIAL

The Intermediate Endeavor Society, composed almost entirely of Academy students, met on the College athletic field Saturday evening, March 12, for a wiener roast. A game of baseball was played while the crowd gathered. W. W. Silver, advisor of I. C. E., and Mrs. Silver were present.

After the eatables had been consumed, the group journeyed to the gymnasium where a game of volley ball was played.

This was a new type of social and proved to be very successful from start to finish.

DEAN OF MUSIC IS ILL

Alexander Hull, dean of music of the college, has been confined to his bed for nearly a month with a high, lingering fever, the cause of which can not be determined by attending physicians. However, Professor Hull is gradually improving and it is expected that he will be up in a week's time, although he will be unable to meet his classes until his recovery is complete. This illness will necessitate the postponement of the glee club concert until later in the spring, although no definite date has been named.

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

Townsend Sutton was elected captain of the Third-First Year baseball team.

Genevieve Badley, Frank Cole and Wendell Hutchens spent a busy week end in Portland.

Della Hanville, who sprained her ankle over a week ago, is now able to walk without crutches.

Ralph Moore's wrist, which he sprained in the first quarter of the Corbett game, is mending rapidly.

Genevieve Badley, Helen George, Mr. and Mrs. Hutchens and their son, Wendell Hutchens, spent a restful week end at the coast.

Della Hanville is limping about due to a sprained ankle. Some seem to believe that the "sprained ankle" is an ailment somewhere behind the face.

Hear ye! Gallant youths and fair ladies! Bring all loose change on the forthcoming March 17 and discover what the "Sign of the Shamrock" offers you.

Mabel Kendall will spend the coming month at the beach in company with Miss Marie Hester. Both are going to derive all the benefit possible from the brisk sea breezes.

With the serious business of choosing a class play, graduating garb and commencement expenses just around the corner, many a Fourth Year's brow has an extra wrinkle.

The unsightly result of a hasty plunge onto the bosom of Mother Earth necessitated a change of apparel, hence Ervin Diment's extreme tardiness to English IV class Wednesday.

Mrs. Hodgins is still unable to attend her classes at the Academy building, so said classes go to her home. She is rapidly improving, however, as it is possible for her to walk some with the aid of crutches.

English I class is editing three papers. The news, comics, stories, and styles must be based on the story of Scott's "Lady of The Lake." Helen McClean, Meredith Davey and Veldon Diment are the respective editors.

Two typing students have sent in papers meriting awards this month: Dorothea Nordyke, who will receive a certificate for the 25 word a minute test, and Juliet Godwin, who will receive the Remington silver pin for the 40 word a minute test.

CRESCENT STAFF ENLARGED

Juliet Godwin and Phillip Holding were selected by the Crescent staff to act as Academy reporters. The Crescent editor feels that he is very fortunate to secure two such promising correspondents to the paper, and hopes to hear "big things" from the Academy department.

Wilma Evans, college Freshman, has been chosen to act in the capacity of joint secretary for the Crescent manager and circulation manager. Miss Evans will keep books for the managers and handle their correspondence, which will greatly add to the proficiency of that department of the staff.

The steamer was only a few feet from the dock when there was a sudden commotion and a man came running madly through the gates shouting to the officials to wait a moment. Without pausing in his stride, he flung his bags on the boat, took a desperate leap and landed on the deck with a crash.

"Good!" he gasped, "I just did make it! A few seconds late and I should have missed the boat."

"Missed it!" exclaimed one of the passengers. "Why, this boat is just coming in!"

Elva R.: "That little girl of yours is surely sweet."

Prof. Michener: "She has to close her mouth before you can see her face."

Hulda: "Why, I heard she looked so much like her father."

STAG BANQUET GIVEN

Sixteen Academy basket ball men gathered at the Holding residence Saturday evening, March 5, to indulge in a basket ball banquet, each boy contributing to the feast.

Coach Armstrong acted as toastmaster and Ralph Moqre, Harold Smith, Philip Holding, Dennis McGuire and Robert Whitlock responded with appropriate toasts.

Miss Ruth Holding and Mrs. Holding served. Those present were: Coach Armstrong, Paul Godwin, Bradford Humphrey, Roy Hollingsworth, Charles McClean, Harold Smith, Robert Whitlock, Dennis McGuire, Townsend Sutton, Ervin Diment, Philip Holding, Ralph Moore, Burton Frost and Morris Silver.

BASKET BALL BANQUET GIVEN

Coach Michener, his wife and baby gave a reception at the college, February 25, for the boys who have been turning out for basket ball and a particular "friend" of each. Ice cream, punch, and wafers were served at neatly set tables. Several toasts were given in humorous style followed by the college song led by Mrs. Michener. A special introduction was given to the "third" Michener, who seems to be acquiring her daddy's strong lungs already. F. L. C.

CLUB EL REGEDEO MEETS

Thursday evening, March 10, C. E. R. held its first meeting since the recent initiation of new members.

After the regular business of the club had been put aside a program was presented by the new members, which consisted of two piano numbers by Dennis McGuire and a "crude dance," The Dance of The Scotch Kiltie, by Philip Holding.

If present plans work out, Prof. Lewis will speak at the club's next meeting.

In Political Science

Prof. Macy: "Does anyone know the constitution?"

Frank: "Four score and thirty years ago—"

H. P. M.: "Aw, that's the Lord's prayer!"

Prof. Weesner: "At your age Calvin Coolidge was through college."

Homer Hester: "At your age Coolidge is President of the United States."

"It won't be long now," said the little dog—as the train ran over his tail.

Miss Watland (after class baseball game): "Who were the back-fielders?"

Prof. Michener in Social Psychology class: "I have put this outline of the chapter on the board. When you get that into your heads, you will have the whole thing in a nut shell."

Prof. Macy: "My mind doesn't work well under any condition, but isn't it hot in here?"

The Gettysburg Address in Trig. Class
"We can little remember what we learn here— But we shall never forget the things we have done here."

"When I was in China, I saw a woman hanging from a tree—"
"Shanghai?"
"Oh, about six feet."

It is our sincere belief that the most successful debating club in the world is in the hands of a policeman.

Able Cohen said, "Keep the Home Fires burning," as he mailed his fire insurance policy.

TREFIAN NICK-NACKS

The theme of Trefian on Feb. 21 was "Debate." Miss Retha Tucker spoke on the "Difference Between Oratory and Debate," and Miss Gladys Hadley told of the benefit derived from debate. Resolved, "That the American Indian should no longer be considered a ward of the government" was the subject of quite a heated debate, with Miss Rachel Lundquist upholding the affirmative and Miss Louise Nelson the negative. An audience decision favored the affirmative.

Following the critic's report the meeting adjourned.

The Trefian Literary Society was called to order by the president in the dormitory parlors on March 9. Following the business, the program hour was in charge of Miss Eva Miles, who presented an illustrated travelogue of her recent trip abroad. The trip began at Paris and culminated at Berlin, and the many places of interest included Marseilles, Nice, Monte Carlo, Rome, Pompey, Mt. Vesuvius. The talk was made most interesting by the display of pictures and actual photographs taken by Miss Miles on her trip.

Following the critic's report the meeting adjourned for a social hour.

FRESHIES STAGE LIVELY MIX

The Freshman class immigrated to an old house in Springbrook where they enjoyed an evening of hilarious fun, Saturday, February 26. Interesting games were followed by a so-called "radio program." Light (?) refreshments, consisting of "hot dogs," buns, pickles, angel-food cake, buttered popcorn, continued throughout the evening. Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Lewis acted as chaperones.

PROGRAM GIVEN AT DORMITORY

A very interesting, varied and impromptu program was given at Kanyon Hall on Monday, March 7, to the dormitory students. Every person present took part in the affair, which consisted in duets, solos, speeches, readings, and a stunt. The climax was reached when Arthur Winters spoke on "How it Feels to Be Sick." The evening was fittingly concluded by singing the college song. F. L. C.

CHAPEL CHAT

Thursday, March 3.—Professor Armstrong, history instructor of the Academy, spoke to the students on his observations of student life and student problems as had been his experience of it in former years. He stressed many of the problems that confront a student and gave some fine advice as to how one should meet them.

Friday, March 4.—Asa Sutton, manager of the Miller Mercantile store of Newberg, gave the first of the series of vocational talks that are to be given at Pacific during the remainder of the term.

Mr. Sutton spoke on the subject of "Retail Business as a Vocation," in which he stressed the fact that the business of today requires trained, educated workers. He mentioned that students should first have an objective and then work or train themselves along that particular line of work. He stated that the retail business has grown to such tremendous proportions that men of "grass hopper" minds can no longer cope with the situations involved.

He stressed the fact that one must be continually "on the job" to meet the up-to-date problems in the business world.

LIBRARY NOTES

Many new books are arriving in the Library. Watch the bulletin board and notice the titles of some. Following is a brief review of a few of the best books:

"The Great Partnership," by John Archibald Macallum.

An illuminating discussion in modern language and understandable terms of the reality and significance of God's relation to man. The author considers God in Action, as creator, sovereign, judge, father, worker, friend, and comforter; God in Attribute, as righteousness, love, mercy, grace, peace, and joy; God in Essence, as life, power, light, and truth.

"Our Lord's Earthly Life," by David Smith.

For twenty years "The Days of His Flesh," by David Smith, has been a standard life of Jesus. Now he rewrites the immortal story, after thirty years of continued study of the sacred records and the relevant literature, ancient and modern. It is more than the product of a scholar, it is the personal testimony of a Christian. Through it runs a humanistic strain that grips the heart of the reader. The simplicity, beauty of style and scholarship will strongly appeal to religious leaders.

"Self-Interpretation of Jesus," by William Owen Carver. Jesus is the one man who has never needed or desired to retract any word which He uttered. In this vivid study of His recorded sayings one finds his conception of His mighty place in the destiny of the world. One listens as He declares His life purpose, reveals His principles of conduct, defines His relation to Messianic prophecy, announces the method of His church, offers Himself as the world's Savior, projects His world movement, and commissions His followers to carry His salvation to all men.

"St. Paul's Life of Christ," by Givilyn O. Griffith. Probably no other man as that which inspired Paul. This book had such a complete picture of Christ is a study of that conception as revealed in the Pauline epistles and book of Acts. It shows the Pauline outlook of Christ Before the Ages, Christ in Creation and in Man, Christ Incarnate, Christ Risen and Exalted, the Living Christ, the Doctrines of Grace, and Christ beyond the Ages. This book makes a more complete understanding of both Jesus and Paul. L. B. W.

Prexy: "Why do you keep looking at your watch all the time?"

Freshman: "I was afraid that you would not have time to finish your interesting lecture."

PRESIDENT HUTCHENS VS. PARLIAMENTARY LAW

Prof. Perisho: "Mr. Hutchens, we will hear your recitation on the nervous system. Will you tell what you know of this subject?"

Mr. Hutchens: "In reply to your query of 'the nervous system,' I regret to say that other matters have been pressing to the extent that I do not feel qualified at the moment to give you the information you desire."

Prof. "Please prepare your work before coming to class."

Hutch: "In regard to your statement concerning immediate preparation of classwork, I beg to advise that it will be fifteen or twenty minutes before I can act on your suggestion, owing to the fact that at the present moment my shoe is untied and my tie is crooked. Regretting that such is the case and sincerely hoping that this condition will not interfere with future orders, I beg to remain!"

Prof. "I do not approve of delays in preparation."

Hutch: "Your complaint regarding delay in your recent order has been called to my personal attention, and I beg to assure you that the same will receive immediate handling. Feeling sure that you will be pleased with the arrangement, allow me to remain—"

Prof. "Not only prepared, but prepared well."

Hutch: "Your suggestion in regard to good preparation strikes me as very good. However, I will take the matter up with my room-mate at once, and hope to be able to advise you promptly as to our decision."

Prof. "Would you like my reference books?"

Hutch: "After conference with room-mate am pleased to notify you that authority has been granted to insure excellent preparation of subject at hand. You may loan us your reference books at your earliest convenience. Trust you can push this matter through without further delay. Also wish to call your attention to your personal notebooks, which, according to our standard specifications, should accompany the reference books. Thanking you for past favors and hoping you will give this your usual prompt attention, I beg to remain."

Doc.: "What do you think of the Chinese question?"

Oscar: "What is it?"

Doc.: "Got any laundry?"

POETICAL QUOTATIONS

It is the mind that maketh good or ill, That maketh wretch or happy, rich or poor. —Spencer: Faerie Queene.

I had rather have a fool to make me merry,

Than experience to make me sad.

Shakespeare: As You Like It. You have many enemies that know not why they are so, but, like to village curs,

Bark when their fellows do.

Shakespeare: Henry VIII. What's in a name? That which we call a rose,

By any other name would smell as sweet. Shakes.: Romeo and Jul. Lovely indeed the mimic works of art, But Nature's works far lovelier.

Cowper: Task. There are times when patience proves fault. Browning: Paracelsus.

Peace hath her victories, No less renowned than war.

Milton: Sonnet XVI. Peace rules the day, where reason rules the mind.

Collins: Hassin, or the Camel Driver. Jest not at preacher's language or expression:

How knowest thou but thy sins made him miscarry?

Herbert: Temple. Church Porch.
