LOCAL CHURCH HOST OF JOINT RECEPTION

Friends Church Entertains New Students and Faculty

A most delightful occasion occurred on the evening of Friday, October 5th, when the members of the Friends church were joint hosts and hostesses at a reception tendered the new college students and faculty members. The spacious church parlors were tastefully and appropriately decorated with autumn foliage and bright flowers. A new Gulbransen piano had been loaned through the courtesy of Klenle & Sons.

Upon arriving, each guest was given ten beans and bidden to speak in the plain language of Friends. If an error was made in not using the plain language, a bean was forfeited, and prizes were offered to those who, at the conclusion of a set period of time had noted the most errors and collected the most beans.

The order was changed and glimpses were had of the private life of some prominent, present day families which included a great variety. Ford, Hoover, Schumann-Heink, Pennington, Edison, and the Coolidge family to whom the judges awarded highest honors. The Coolidge family enacted a skit in two acts portraying the President out job hunting. The first act showed the President in his refusal to run in the next presidential campaign. The second showed him "hunting" peculiar birds which were "offers" for employment which flew from the coop labeled "Ex-Presidential Employment Agency." He shot a number of fine birds such as "College Presidency," "Mayor of New York," "Wall Street Offer," and finally selected from his lot a bird called "Professor of Economics at Pacific College."

Following this impromptu medley of presentations a short musical program was presented. Mary Sue Binford played a piano solo and also accompanied Della Hanville in two delightful musical readings. Frank Cole sang a vocal solo, accompanied on the piano by Genevieve Badley.

At the conclusion of the evening refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table presided over by Mrs. Amanda Woodward and Mrs. L. M. Parker.

FORMER STUDENTS UNITED IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

A wedding of considerable interest to the college community occurred on Sunday, September thirtieth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hanville, when Miss Retha Tucker became the bride of Mr. Waldo Jones of Twin Falls, Idaho. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Wendell Woodward sang "Oh Promise Me," accompanied on the piano by Rachel Lundquist, who also played Fendel's "Wedding Procession" as the bridal party entered. The bride was attended by Miss Della Hanville, and the groom by Mr. William Sweet. Rev. Gervas A. Carey, pastor of the Newberg Friends church, read the ring ceremony

CAMPAIGN FOR $100,000 BANQUET UNDER WAY

President Levi T. Pennington is turning over his classes temporarily to other members of the faculty, that he may give a larger portion of his time to the campaign for the $100,000 banquet.

For a time this work has not been advancing rapidly for several reasons, the chief of which is the fact that the Portland Community Chest Campaign is on and the college must not interfere with that campaign, of course. Besides, Mr. Eric V. Hauser, the Portland leader of this campaign, has been absent from the city since September 20 and will be until near the close of October; and President Pennington has had to be in the college work at the opening of the school year.

Professor Lewis will take the Shakespeare class for a few weeks, Professor Macy the Acts and Epistles class, and Professor Gulley the Ethics class. This will leave President Pennington free to push this banquet campaign in Newberg, Salem, and Portland.

Substantial progress has been made in the solicitation, with gifts thus far as follows:

Newberg business men's campaign	$4,190.00
Pacific College Students	260.00
Pacific College Faculty	630.00
Eastern Contributions	18,025.00
Portland	5,000.00
Miscellaneous	1,435.00

Total$27,540.00

It is the plan to push a much more general solicitation after the close of the Portland Community Chest Campaign, October 26, and the banquet will probably be held late in November. The exact date has not been fixed.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT HEADS TO OPEN A STUDIO IN PORTLAND

The college community is regretting the near coming departure of Eva Hummer Hull and Prof. and Mrs. Alexander Hull to take up their residence in Portland. For some time the work at the college has not been sufficient for Prof. and Mrs. Hull and they are now, in addition to their work at the college, setting up a studio in Portland, and also Professor Hull will take up more work along the line of literary criticism, for which he is most capable.

Although losing them from residence, the college is not losing the service of these two able artists who for so many years have been members of the faculty force and directors of the School of Music. Their many friends are happy that their work will embrace a wider territory and will undoubtedly be of greater influence.

RECEPTION OF WELCOME GIVEN TO NEW STUDENTS

The combined efforts of both the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. social committees afforded the college students and faculty members a most delightful "get-acquainted" affair on Friday evening, Sept. 21, at Wood-Mar Hall. The ice being broken, about one hundred people, yes, faculty included, entered one hundred per cent into the spirit of the evening. Competitive games were played after folks "guessed their names," prizes being awarded the most worthy.

Formal welcome was given new students when a short program convened in the college chapel. It is the aim of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. to interest all newcomers in the college Christian activities and with this theme Margaret Jackson, vice-president, and Arthur Winters, president, of the respective associations, gave short talks. Esther Mueller played two saxophone numbers, Della Hanville gave a musical reading and Philip Gatch a vocal solo. President Pennington gave a short address of welcome savoring of both his characteristic wit and seriousness.

At the conclusion of the serving of light refreshments the Alma Mater was sung. As the strains of the dear old song were sung it was impressive to note that several voices which sung with student bodies of Pacific a few years back were mingled with the voices of the present student body. Several graduates and old students are this year members of the faculty force.

RALPH CHOATE AND ARTHUR WINTERS TAKE PEACE TOUR

Arthur Winters and Ralph Choate were privileged to represent Pacific College in the Peace work this summer. Beginning June 19, they spent ten weeks traveling in Oregon and giving lectures on the Peace question. These boys were working under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee and were provided with a second-hand Chevrolet by the committee.

The first three weeks were spent on the coast, speaking in towns from Astoria to Tillamook. This section of the work was the most enjoyable because of the good times they had visiting former schoolmates and friends who were living near the beaches.

From Tillamook their work took the boys along the inland Pacific Highway as far south as Astoria. A balopticon lantern was used by the boys in their work. Lectures were given every night except Saturday and twice on Sunday most weeks.

After the first three weeks the boys

LYCEUM COURSE FOR 1928-29 ANNOUNCED

An Especially Pleasing Course Is Assured Lyceum Patrons

The Pacific college Lyceum course will open at the college auditorium in Wood-Mar Hall, Friday evening, October 26, the last number coming Friday evening, February 8. As usual there are six numbers on the course and this year's selections constitute a particular pleasing array of talent.

The opening attraction will be Shaver's Jubilee Singers, one of the best musical aggregations of negroes on the platform, consisting of a mixed quartet with reader and pianist. They will feature old plantation melodies, negro spirituals, negro folk songs, and modern ballads.

Frye and Company, presenting magic, mystery, melody and mirth, will appear on the course Thursday, November 15. William Eugene Frye will present a series of baffling mystifying illusions, including the sword cabinet, the vanishing pigeons, the Chinese torture cabinet, etc., an expose of fraudulent spiritism including spirit writing and other "manifestations." Leah Miles, soprano and pianist, will furnish a delightful musical program.

Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of America's great Commoner, William Jennings Bryan, will give the first lecture on the course. She has led a busy life with distinguished services on the executive committee of the American Women's War Relief Fund and many similar enterprises, spending three years in the West Indies, three years in London, three years in Egypt, with extended travel in Africa, India, and the Far East. "Modern Arabian Knights" is the subject of the lecture which will probably be given here. Mrs. Owen has devoted most of her time to lecturing since the decease of her distinguished husband, Major Reginald Owen, M. C., British Royal Engineers. She is on the Portland Celebrity course and it is only by rare good fortune that the course here is able to secure her as one of its speakers.

M. A. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

The results of the election of officers for the Men's Athletic Association of Pacific College for 1928-29 are:

President	Richard Haworth
Vice-President	William Wood
Secretary	Ralph Choate
Treasurer	Harold Smith
Senior Representative	William Sweet
Junior Representative	Eldon Everest
Soph. Representative	Ervin Diment
Academy Rep.	Dennis McGuire

A. S. B. VACANCIES ARE FILLED

The offices left vacant this year from last among the offices of the Associated Student Body of Pacific College were, treasurer, associate editor of the Crescent, and yell leader. At a meeting of the student body last Thursday, Ervin Diment was elected treasurer, Ralph Choate, associate editor of the Crescent, and Charles Beals yell leader.

The school year 1928-29 is here. Let us extend a hearty welcome to all new students and start this fall term off with a bang. After all, life itself is divided into three terms—that which was, that which is, and that which will be. Let us learn from the first term to profit by the present, and from the present to live better for the future.

At this time we may be turning from our summer's labor and earnings to a life of expenditure. Let us spend our time wisely, work every hour, paid or unpaid, see that our work is honest, and we cannot help but receive our reward. The reward of a thing well done is to be able to say it is actually done.

GREETING TO STUDENTS

Dear Fellow Student:

I congratulate you on your prospect of going on with your education, growing in all that goes to make a real, full-grown human being.

It will cost a great deal for you to put in four years at Pacific College, though probably Pacific is the most economical college in the state. It will cost time and money and effort—but it will be worth it all, many times over. More power of enjoyment and more things to enjoy, more power to serve the world and more opportunities to serve, these are among the bigger things which college gives to you.

It ought to be and I believe it is your ambition to be just the best you are capable of, physically, mentally, morally, socially, spiritually—every way. And Pacific College has for its real purpose the making of men and women strong and straight physically, keen and broad mentally, sound and true morally, poised and versatile socially, clean and powerful spiritually.

Let's put in a full year of real growth together in 1928-1929. Let's have life—abundantly.

Sincerely your friend,
LEVI T. PENNINGTON,
President Pacific College.

SUPPORT

One of the most vital necessities of a college is support. Pacific college puts on a great number of programs in Wood-Mar hall each year. The Lyceum course presents a number of very interesting and varied entertainments. Other schools are entertained in athletics and in forensics and debate. Many social events are held throughout the year. The success of all these activities depends entirely on the students that attend or take part. Let us get behind all the activities of Pacific college and pledge our strongest support.

One of the most vital necessities to a student is the Christian Association meetings held each Wednesday. This also takes support from each member of the student body. Support student chapel, and if called on to entertain or take part in that, do it!

A man who is running a store can't obtain results and profits if he doesn't keep adding onto his stock all the time. He must put into it in order to get more out of it, and the more he puts in the more he gets out of it. Let us, as students, put all we have into school this year, and next June be able to look back and call it a success due in part to our own efforts extended in that direction.

ATHLETICS

What is going to be our attitude toward athletics for the coming school year? There is certainly room for improvement over last year, and with the many new students in school it is more than possible.

We have a new coach this year, a man whom we all know by reputation, a man who has brought our school more athletic fame than any other one man, a man who is ambitious for and interested in us. Let's get behind him. He is a big man but he needs help and we are the only ones who can help him. We can help him by working in every way we can for athletics. Turn out for the team—root if you can't play. Be there all the time! Let's make this year a red letter year for P. C. Athletics. Don't disappoint the new coach. Don't be an "Also Ran!"
B. H.

NEWCOMERS

We, the Crescent staff, heartily welcome all new students and faculty members. Let us all heartily cooperate in all school activities, both by aiding directly and by boosting your alma mater at every chance you get. A student body is just what the students themselves make it. Let's make it what we know it should be and keep up the high standards which have been set by our predecessors. Again we say—WELCOME!

STORK VISITS THE HULLS

Students and faculty have been making the acquaintance of young Alexander Hull II, who arrived during vacation time to make his home with Prof. and Mrs. Alexander Hull. He is a wide awake little gentleman and a worthy addition to the faculty force.

LYCEUM COURSE FOR 1928-29 ANNOUNCED

School of Music will be given by the Hulls early in January. Newberg audiences do not need to be told that this will be one of the best numbers on the course. Chamber music, a varied vocal program, and musical readings are all to have a place on the program, with what delightful surprises only the Hulls will know until the program is presented.

The course will have another of the Portland celebrity attractions in Sam Grathwell, who comes Tuesday evening, January 22. Mr. Grathwell is recently returned from a study of affairs in the Orient and has two new lectures, "China—A Vision or a Nightmare" and "Japan of Myth and Fact." It is quite likely, however, that he will be asked to give here his inspirational lecture, "Getting By Your Hoodoo." If anyone should be able to speak convincingly on this subject it is Mr. Grathwell. Born in a Cincinnati tenement with a background of poverty and struggle, taking up his school work in the sixth grade at nineteen, with college work at Berea, Pacific University, and Leland Stanford, Mr. Grathwell has achieved real fame as a platform orator.

The closing number of the course will appear Friday evening, February 8, a delightful program of painting, sculpture, and music presented by the Caveny Company. J. Franklin Caveny, a noted cartoonist and clay modeler, heads the company and presents a delightful and artistic program of art production in painting and sculpture. Mrs. Marie M. Caveny, a charming mezzo soprano, who adds much to the attractiveness of the program, and Miss Hazel Bowen, solo pianiste and accompanist, complete an exceptionally strong company.

The price of the course will be the same as usual, $3.00 for adults and $2.00 for students of college, high school or public school. The canvass for tickets will be put on within a few days.

before a background of beautifully basketed yellow and white chrysanthemums with ferns. Following the ceremony while the young couple were receiving the congratulations and best wishes of their friends Miss Lundquist played softly Gerbel's "Woodland Rhapsody." Mid showers of rice Mr. and Mrs. Jones left by automobile for their home in Twin Falls.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Pacific College in the class of '28, and Mr. Jones was a former member of the class of '29.

STUDENT CHAPEL FAVORED

The students are to conduct one chapel a week this semester as they did the last semester of last year. At a meeting of the student body last Thursday a vote was taken and a unanimous ballot was cast in favor of Student chapel. The students are behind this move whole-heartedly and have pledged themselves to take part in these exercises if called upon (if talent permits).

SAMPLE ROOTER CAP COMING

A representative of a roter cap concern visited Pacific College several days ago and showed a large and handsome display of rooters' caps of all sizes and descriptions. A sample cap is being made in the colors of the local college and will soon be on display for the decision of the student body as to whether they are in favor of a regular roter cap or not. The price of the caps of which the sample will be sent is seven-fifty cents.

ACTIVITIES OF PACIFIC COLLEGE STUDENTS

FORENSICS

Each passing year brings the greater need for public speakers. In order to begin to meet this need the college offers regular classes which seek to prepare the student to think clearly and quickly before an audience and to be able to talk about present day problems. The forensic opportunities of intercollegiate contests are of especial value to the students. These contests develop a student's ability to think and help him to realize the depth and scope of great human problems that face us today. They also bring about friendly relations with other colleges and show the student how others think about these great questions.

Oratory

In March of each year the "Old Line" contest is held and in April of each year the "Peace" contest takes place. These contests are under the auspices of the Inter-Collegiate Association of Oregon, of which Pacific College is a member.

The college representatives for these contests are chosen by local tryouts, which are open to all college students. The winner of the local peace tryouts receives twenty-five dollars in gold, and participation in either oratory or debate is rewarded by a small "Q" presented by the student body. We hope for greater interest in both debate and oratory this year.

Extemporaneous Speaking

For several years the college has sponsored each year the "Old Pulpit" contest, which is an extemporaneous speaking contest open to all college students. The winner of this contest has his or her name engraved on the brass plate on the first pulpit ever used in the city of Newberg. For a year or two the I. O. A. O. has held an extemporaneous speaking contest in connection with the Peace oratorical contest.

Debating

During the past year Pacific College was not represented by men's and women's debating teams, but we hope for greater interest in this line during this year. The greater interest seemed to be in oratory, so there were no debate teams. Debating is important to the student and the school. Experience is obtained in debating that one cannot get any other place. Let us try this year to turn out good debate teams as well as good orators.

Dramatics

Dramatics are being given a larger place each year among the activities of Pacific College. Each of the plays given last year was well received. With the hard work and good time the casts have received excellent experience.

As a part of the class night program, both the senior class and the fourth year academy class present plays. In addition other classes and organizations give plays at various times throughout the year.

Because of the smaller college it is possible for many students to take part in dramatics, who would otherwise not have a chance to appear in plays.

May this be a better year for dramatics than we have ever had.

Music

For the student interested in music, Pacific provides several opportunities. In the first place, the music faculty seek to give better training and more experience. Every student who plays a musical instrument is urged to join the orchestra. Professor Hull has in years past directed excellent choruses and both men's and ladies' glee clubs.

Student Loan Fund

In order to start a Student Loan Fund, Mr. R. A. Booth offered to match each five hundred dollars raised by the students of Pacific College within a period of five years. Students judged worthy may borrow from this fund while in school and return the loans after securing regular incomes. Such a fund is indeed appreciated and is of constant and unlimited service.

Deputation

The Deputation is composed of all young people who are interested in Christian activity. A meeting for business and prayer is held once during the week. It is a branch of the Christian Associations' work.

Last year through the deputation work, eighty preaching services were held, not only among Friends, but among others, and one regular service of Sunday school and church was maintained throughout the year. Two week-end conferences and two evangelistic meetings were also held.

STAG MIX IS WELL STIRRED

O-u-c-h! Oh, boy, what a swat! Lemme in on this! And this is just the beginning of the long, long story which anyone who was at the semi-annual Y. M. C. A. stag mix can tell you of what happened in the vicinity of the gymnasium last Thursday evening.

From the time the first blow landed until the last watermelon rind sailed away into the distance, there was no lull in the uproaring fun.

It started off with that game supposedly familiar to only old students, known as double thotand. Anyway it always works. Ask a new student.

Next came the rooster fights. We'll bet President Pennington can't always boost Prof. Gulley out of the ring!

Did someone say something about blanket tossing? Oh, yes, that must have been at the stag mix too, and Arthur Winters is almost positive that he went nearest the ceiling.

Broncho busting duels, Indian wrestling and all kinds of gymnastics featured in the evenings entertainment. And then the bonfire. When everyone was gathered 'round, moved to silence by the serenity of the evening someone let go a watermelon rind. What followed can only be adequately told by a few of the victims. Then all sneaked

COACH GULLEY

Director of Athletics at Pacific College

Prof. Gulley will be head coach at Pacific this year in all lines of athletics. It is hoped that the students will give him their heartiest support. Prof. Terrell is to assist him.

SOCCER TO BE PLAYED AT PACIFIC COLLEGE

After such a successful season of soccer in 1927, Pacific has decided to again play that game instead of football. Last year our goal was never crossed, and with the combination of last year's experience and several new men, we should be able to keep up the good record.

By action of the M. A. A., Coach Gulley has purchased a lot of new soccer equipment, including nets, balls and suits. The men have spent several evenings getting the field in shape and are now spending their time getting themselves in shape. Indeed, they should soon be coming into form, for with a game scheduled for Oct. 12 at Reed, it behooves the team to show some action.

Among those reporting for practice are Haworth and Frost, last year's letter men. New material showing up includes Wirt, Silver, Bowman, Taylor, Hummel, McKibben, Woods, De Vine, Hanson, Bissett, Moore, Green, Harle and Post.

From this bunch of men the school can look for considerable. They are all taking to soccer like the proverbial duck to water and we will want to know why? if we do not win some games this year, no matter whom we play.

Well, some of it is up to the rest of us, so let's all get out and play from the side lines and take part of the credit for winning.—B. H.

FOURTH YEARS ELECT

At a meeting of the Academy Fourth year class, Tuesday, September 25, the following officers were elected for the coming year:

- President—Ralph Moore.
- Vice-President—Damon McKibben.
- Secretary—Arloene Davey.
- Treasurer—Errett Hummel.
- Social Committee Chairman—Dennis McGuire.

Crescent Reporter—Vera Bauman. A committee composed of Arloene Davey, Vera Bauman and Dennis McGuire was chosen to look into the matter of class rings.

NEW FACES ARE SEEN ON PACIFIC FACULTY FORCE

There are six new faces on the Pacific College faculty this year—well, three that are entirely new and three that are new as Pacific College faculty members, though they were once well known here as students.

The former Pacific College students who are now on the teaching force are Emmett W. Gulley, class of 1917; Helen Hester Wood, class of 1924; and Horace C. Terrell, a Pacific College student from 1919 to 1922, with a bachelor's degree from Earlham college in 1923.

Mr. Gulley is acting professor of Economics and Sociology during the year's leave of absence of Professor Dwight W. Michener. His chief responsibility, however, is his work as director of Physical Education. He was a first class star in Pacific College athletics. After his graduation he spent a year in the Hartford Theological Seminary, was in Friends Missionary work in Mexico for five and a half years, took his master's degree from the T. Wistar Brown Graduate school of Haverford College in 1924, and was then for four years general superintendent of New York Yearly Meeting of Friends.

Helen Hester Wood is acting professor of Chemistry during the year's leave of absence of Professor F. W. Perisho. After her graduation in 1924 she took a year's work in Friends University since which time she has been doing high school teaching in Kansas.

Horace C. Terrell was also an athletic star during his undergraduate days. After his graduation from Earlham in 1923, he carried on graduate study in 1924, and has been doing high school teaching since. His teaching work at Pacific College is in English and History, and he will assist in athletic coaching.

The three teachers who are entirely new to Pacific College are Alice B. Myers, Dorothy Verplank, and Laura A. Betts.

Miss Myers, who succeeds Miss Eva Miles as Professor of French and German, took her undergraduate work at Reed College and her graduate work in the University of California. She had two years of teaching experience at Reed.

Miss Dorothy Verplank, who succeeds Miss Esther Binford as instructor of English and director of physical training for women, did two years of her undergraduate work at Earlham college and her last two years at Whittier college, where she took her bachelor's degree in 1926. Her graduate work was done at the T. Wistar Brown Graduate School of Haverford College, since which time she has been secretary of the Pacific branch of the American Friends Service Committee. Miss Verplank is in charge of Kanyon Hall, the dormitory for women, having had experience in dormitory life both at Earlham and Whittier, at the latter college as a student president of the dormitory.

Miss Laura A. Betts is the new Librarian, succeeding Miss Leona Watland. Miss Betts is a graduate of the library school of Pratt Institute. She was assistant librarian in Penn College during her undergraduate days and has been in the public library of Des Moines, Iowa, for some years.

BIG AND LITTLE SISTER FROLIC

The college and academy girls met in Room 14 to get acquainted Thursday afternoon, September 27. At first there was some attempt at playing games, but there was too much excitement in the air for very effective playing. The little sisters were fishing down the staircase for their big sisters. As each girl found the name of her sister there was a great deal of chatter. At last the big and little sisters all found each other and played games for a while. Then the Icydis appeared and the party ended.

FUNSHINE AND MIRTH

A million years from next Tuesday an archaeologist is going to dig up the bones of an animal from under the girls' dorm. He will call it a Desour-aesaphitidae. It will be a cat.

"Is Bill really as dumb as he looks?"
"He's dummer! His idea of a snappy present is a rubber plant."

Null: "In Hawaii they have the same weather the year round."

Void: "Mercy, how do conversations ever start?"

Our idea of a soft job is to assist a florist in picking the blooms from a century plant.

Small Boy: "Do you believe in her-edy, pop?"

Pop: "Sure! Why, for instance, does your six-months-old-brother try to put his toes in his mouth if it isn't because of his dad's constant effort to make ends meet?"

Glen R.: "Do you file your finger nails?"

Chuck B.: "Naw, whatze use? I bite 'em off and throw 'em away."

Damon Mc.: "D'je hear about the Scotchman who went insane?"

Ben H.: "No, how come?"

Damon: "Aw, he bought a score card at the game the other day, and neither side scored."

"Gov." Terrell (at dinner): "Think!"
Dick Haworth: "What?"

"Gov." Terrell: "What an awful hard time two cross-eyed people would have looking each other in the eye!"

"Well, well!" exclaimed our absent-minded professor, as he stood knee deep in the bathtub, "Now just what did I get in here for?"

All Soccer Men Please Notice

Lay a wreath on our brave Dick;
He missed the ball but blocked the kick!

Stan K.: "How did you come out in your intelligence test? I suppose they claimed you had the mentality of a five-year-old child."

P. Gatch: "No, the examiners claimed that by their statistics, I hadn't been born yet."

How About It?

Even if women do have more sense than men, you never see a man with about a million buttons on his shirt. So there!

Prof. Macy (in O. T. History): "Can anyone tell me what part of the Bible forbids a man's having two wives?"

Chuck Beals: "Yezzir. Where it says no man can serve two masters."

The chapel nearly exploded when it was announced that the amateur would next sing, "Sweet and Low" and "Far, Far Away."

Be thankful we live in Oregon. We read: "Down near Berkeley, California, it is so dry that they are drinking canned tomatoes."

Advise to All Students

Don't worry if your job is small,
Or if rewards are few;
Remember that the mighty oak
Was once a nut like you.

Watermelon?

New Boarder: "How's the grub here at the girls' dorm?"

Art Winters: "Well, we have chicken every morning for breakfast."

New Boarder: "Chicken every morning! Boy, how is it served?"

Art W.: "In the shell!"

FRESHMEN MEEKLY SUBMIT TO ANNUAL INITIATION

Have you noticed the respectful and submissive attitude which the Freshmen have, for the last few days, maintained toward their superiors? This result was obtained when they were subdued and properly initiated by the Sophomores Thursday night, Sept. 27, at Wood-Mar Hall. The party was a notable event. An hour or two was spent peaceably with games, tricks and contests. Then all the Freshmen were sent on an expedition down through the canyon, from which they all emerged some minutes later pale and trembling, but still alive and hopeful.

They were blindfolded and led one by one through all kinds of terrible places and into the Dungeon, where they were seated upon a box and fed raw eggs and soda and allowed to smell a substance which possessed a very extraordinary odor. In the meantime a nice coat of green lacquer was applied to each Freshman finger-nail. Then the victim was led away and the next one treated similarly. A few minor accidents occurred. One little Sophomore developed a green mustache which she was not looking for; and the group are still wondering who enjoyed a certain quart of ice-cream that was lost.

However, as a whole, it was a very successful occasion and the Sophomores at least, enjoyed it immensely.

MANY NEW STUDENTS ENROLL AT PACIFIC

We feel that we are very fortunate in having such a good list of new students with us this year. We are glad that those who live out of the state chose Pacific for their school as well as those whose homes are in or near Newberg. The new students are as follows:

Lincoln Wirt, Berkeley, Calif.; Martha Stahlheim, Newberg; Noel Bowman, Portland; Gerald Smith, Sherwood; Ronald Sherk, Sherwood; Jeanette Worley, Newberg; Edith Howe, Newberg; Elizabeth Lingle, Newberg; Marvin Barnes, Newberg; Leona Freeman, Aurora; Norman Goodin, Newberg; Beryle Plowman, Everett, Wash.; Wesley Kaufman, Newberg; Rubie Brisbine, Newberg; Walter Taylor, Delburne, Alberta, Canada; Verone Martin, Dundee; Bob Bisette, Newberg; Marion De Vine, Newberg; Errett Hummel, The Dalles; Bill Wood, Colorado; Marjorie Lewis, Newberg; Florence Elliott, Newberg; Doyle Green, Newberg; Mildred Russell, Sherwood; Elinor Whipple, Vancouver, Wash.; Dorothea Nordyke, Newberg; Gertrude Sandoz, Fernwood; Dorris Gettmann, Newberg; Ruthanna McCracken, Silverton; Betty Works, Portland; Bertha Mae Rowland, Newberg; Lois Rice, Caldwell, Idaho.

TEMPORARY PARADISE

Wonderful dreams envelop my mind
As the sordid class is left behind,
Fanciful dreams pass over my eyes—
Beautiful lands with azure skies,
Pleasanter winds in summer lines,
The magic of Spain—her cathedral chimes,

All the splendor of foreign lands,
The viceroys of India—his royal bands,
All the romance of Scottish lore,
Bits of legend from Turkey's shore.
I listen with horror; I am appalled,
My dreams have vanished, my name is called,
Back to the schoolroom's noise and din,
I am a student, imprisoned within.

—Exchange.

"So," sobbed Illma Vaselineovitch,
"Ivan Ninespotski died in battle. Did he utter my name as he was dying?"
"Part of it," replied the returned soldier.

Is he conceited? Why, every time he hears a clap of thunder he runs to the window and makes a graceful bow.

R. W. LEWIS CHOSEN TO FILL VACANCY LEFT BY PERISHO

Professor Russell Lewis was elected to fill the vacancy left by Professor

PROFESSOR R. W. LEWIS

Floyd Perisho as vice-president of the Pacific College faculty. Professor Lewis is head of the English department of Pacific College and has been connected with this institution a large number of years. Professor Perisho is in the east going to school, a doctor's degree being his goal.

SCHOOL GIVES WAY TO FAIR

College and Academy classes were dismissed in favor of the state fair at Salem, Friday, September 28. Quite a number of students took advantage of this opportunity to view the products of this great western state.

The exhibits were very interesting and were well worth any one's time to look at them. The many side shows and amusement devices were patronized and more or less enjoyed.

In the afternoon the races became the center of attraction to most people. The races were quite interesting and the daredevil acts between races were well received by the crowd. The thing which seemed to draw the interest of the Pacific students most was the Ford soccer game. Some students declared that the best part of the fair.

In the evening the Horse Show was the main event and this drew a large crowd. The show was much enjoyed by those who saw it.

As an educational feature, the state fair is a very good thing for any student and helps him to better appreciate his home state. The students enjoyed the fair and hope they will be allowed to attend again next year.

THE COLLEGE SONG

Close beside Chehalem's Mountain
In the college we adore;
Like an ever-flowing fountain
She will stand forevermore.
Where she stands we'll ne'er forget it,
Near the old Willamette's banks,
And in years we'll ne'er regret it
That we entered in her ranks.

CHORUS

'Tis the good old Quaker college,
And we'll shout her worthy name;
Where we gained our store of knowledge
In her halls of honor's fame.
And we'll always in this manner
To our mother school be true,
'Neath Pacific College banner
Of Old Gold and Navy Blue.

Comrades, come and raise your voices,
Let us praise Pacific dear,
While with her your heart rejoices,
Spread her glory far and near.
Then a rousing cheer we give her,
'Tis the least that we can do;
Old P. C. we'll love forever,
Our Old Gold and Navy Blue.

When the four loved years of college
Shall have long since passed away,
When with worldly care and knowledge
Many a head is turning gray,
Still we'll shout her praise the louder
And our hearts give echo true,
As we cheer our Alma Mater,
Of Old Gold and Navy Blue.

LIBRARY NOTES

Do you know what is happening? Why not start this year right by keeping posted on what is happening in the world? Two daily newspapers, the Morning Oregonian and the Oregon Journal, as well as the weekly Newberg Graphic are received in the library.

Weekly periodicals which keep one posted on current events and may be read in the library are: Outlook, Literary Digest, Survey, Nation, New Republic. Monthly magazines that serve the same purpose are: Current History, Review of Reviews, World's Work.

Those who are interested in peace and international relations will note the Advocate of Peace, League of Nation News Bulletins, International Conciliation, and World Tomorrow.

Those whose bent is toward home making will want to read American Cookery and Good Housekeeping.

Some feel the lure of the out-of-door world so strongly that the Nature magazine can not escape their eye.

The mathematical mind will find the American Mathematical Monthly. The musical interest will find Music and Musicians and Music and Youth. Asia and the National Geographic cannot escape the eye of the adventurer.

All Quakers should be interested in Quakerdom, and read the American Friend, and Pacific Friend.

About sixty magazines are received regularly in the library and are conveniently placed for your use. Current issues may be taken out over night and back numbers may be kept for a week. Please have all books and magazines charged at the desk before taking out. "Reading is to the mind what exercise is to the body."

GOLD "P" CLUB WILL ENFORCE TRADITIONS

With ten members to start off the new year, the Gold "P" Club is looking forward to a hot time. Not only having such a time but showing the right spirit and passing it around to other men members of the Student Body. Taking upon themselves the difficult job of seeing that all the traditions of the school are observed, the club is contracting for a busy season.

At a recent meeting, Charles Beals was elected vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and chairman of affairs, and though he is a small man, he is quite sure he can hold down the job, or jobs.

New paddles are under construction, made of reinforced concrete, and though it is hoped it will not be necessary to wield them, if the time comes when it is the club does not want them to fall. An order has been placed for a large display paddle made of petrified wood with an inlay "P" of old gold agate. This will only be used in extreme cases, such as a Frosh forgetting his cap.

The club is looking forward to a quiet time of policing the campus but if duty calls they will follow.

Moral—Don't break traditions.
(Editor's Note.—In case you hadn't guessed it, this article was written by a Gold "P" member, and he doesn't come from California either.)

TRADITIONS

Only Seniors may pick flowers or foliage on the front campus.

Students shall pass out of chapel in the order of their class ranking.

Talking shall be done elsewhere than in the library.

Coats shall not be hung over banisters.

Men shall not use the south door during school hours.

Chapel seats should not slam down before the end of a hymn.

All time not spent in classes shall not be spent standing over the register.

Each cubby shall be occasionally cleaned out.

Only Seniors shall start applause in chapel.

Paths shall not be worn on the front campus.

After the second week of school freshmen shall appear in green decoration of some sort, which shall remain in evidence until Christmas holidays.

Sophomores and second year respectively shall entertain the freshmen and first years.

Seniors shall appear in caps and gowns after the first Monday in April.

April first shall be observed as loud sock day, or with a college affair of some sort.

Campus day shall be observed in the spring by a general clean up, a picnic lunch, and an athletic intramural meet.

The name of the winner of the annual extemporaneous speaking contest shall be engraved on the copper plate of the old pulpit.

A may day festival shall be held biennially on or near May 1, of even numbered years.

The senior class and the fourth year class shall each present a public class day.

The freshmen shall present to the college some useful or beautiful gift.

At the last chapel of the school year, athletic and public speaking awards shall be made and move up day observed.

The college students shall entertain high school seniors and academy fourth years near the end of school.

The juniors shall entertain the seniors with a banquet.

A Senior stood on the railroad track, The train was coming fast. It took one look and started back, For it knew it could not pass.

Said the 'Salemite' to his keeper: "I'm going now. If I don't return before I arrive, detain me until I come back."

QUAKER BOY

QUAKER BOY TELLS WHEREABOUTS OF EX-STUDENTS

Clare Howard, member of last year's student body, is attending the College of Idaho, Caldwell, Idaho, this year. We will miss Clare in all college activities, but here is to his success at the C. of I.

—QB—

Errol Michener, member of last year's baseball team, is in Oskaloosa, Iowa, where he is attending Penn College. Penn is very fortunate in having this young man. Pacific students will miss his Iowa brogue and perpetual smile!!

—QB—

We are sorry that last season's basketball center will not be in Pacific this year. Merlin Brown had an active part in all the college activities and his absence is felt in the student body. Merlin is working in Seattle.

—QB—

Beryle Hale and Bernard Newby are enrolled at Willamette this fall. Oh, yes, Joseph Silver went along with them! Joseph wrote to one of his friends and said that he wasn't married yet. (In student body meeting today we heard that there wasn't a violin in the whole student body, so I guess Joseph must have taken his with him.)

—QB—

May Cooper is in Topeka, Kansas, attending Washburne College.

—QB—

Alida Wilson is going to Monmouth Normal school.

—QB—

Elwin Hutchens is attending Linfield College.

—QB—

Oscar Eskelson, better known as "Oskie," is motoring to South America.

—QB—

Ralph Yergen and Homer Hester are attending the University of Oregon (I just now thought why it seems so different at school this year. We miss Homer's "gentle" voice in the halls!).

—QB—

Jack Gagan, who made such a hit in "The Youngest," is not in school. We have heard that he is working.

—QB—

"Doc" Crozer, who has been active in college activities for a number of years, is working in Camas, Wash. It seems rather "strange" without Doc here and we surely wish that he could be with us.

—QB—

We were very sorry to hear that Geneva Street could not enter Pacific this fall on account of illness. We hope that she will have a speedy recovery and that she can enter school next semester.

—QB—

Willie Evans has accepted a position as "school marm" at Willamina. We hope that she will not be too hard on her pupils and that both students and teacher will have a successful year.

—QB—

Lloyd Baker, the sturdy basketball player, is working at Bend, Ore.

—QB—

Mable Kendall is in Haviland, Kansas, going to school.

—QB—

Ila Tozier is attending Taylor University in Indiana this year. I don't know her address but if anyone is interested just ask Ralph Choate and he can tell you.

DEPUTATIONS BEGIN WORK

The P. C. Deputation Group has begun another year's work. The deputation work is conducted under the auspices of the Christian Associations. Meetings are held on Wednesday evenings at 6:30 in Room 14. Two group meetings have been held. These meetings have been an inspiration to all who have attended, helping them to

YAMHILL COUNTY ENDEAVOR CONVENTION LAST WEEK

The annual convention of the Yamhill County C. E. Union was held last week end in the Presbyterian church of Newberg.

The convention opened Friday evening with a song service, followed by a welcome speech by Rev. Lee of Newberg. Mr. Sabin of Eugene Bible University gave an interesting devotional. Rev. C. P. Gates of the Portland Evangelical church gave the first of a series of talks which pleased the audience very much. Every talk of Rev. Gates was listened to with great eagerness, and by the time the convention closed all were well aware of the fact that they had heard some mighty essential points in Christian living.

Meetings were held Saturday morning, afternoon and evening, the day sessions given to conferences conducted by county officers. In the morning Rev. Carey gave a very interesting talk on the history of the Bible. In the evening a few of the faithful Endeavors gathered at the Friends church for a banquet prepared by the ladies of this church. There was not the attendance hoped for but those present devoured their share of the food and listened to the interesting toast program which had been prepared by Rev. Lee.

Sunday afternoon was a busy time, with the installation of officers for the coming year, awarding of banners, committee reports, a devotional talk by Rev. Young of Newberg and a sermon by Rev. Gates on the topic, "The Land of Good Enough." In this he showed us that this land was not as good as "The Land of the Best" or God's Land. The regular Sunday evening Endeavor meeting was led by Russell Baker of West Chehalem.

The convention closed with a decision service led by Jimmie Henderson, the state president of Christian Endeavor.

Viola Ogden, the state secretary, was at every session giving her helpful advice whenever possible.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS ARE MADE ON DORMITORIES

Those who have lived in the dormitories in the past years truly appreciate the improvement that the Ladies Auxilliary have fostered during the summer.

Of the many changes and improvements that have been made perhaps the most noticeable is the interior painting of both dorms, also the new window curtains and screens that have been put in the girls' dormitory.

A new cement shower has been installed in the men's Dorm to replace the old tin one on which so many have pinched their toes.

Also a great deal of work has been done on the furnaces of the dormitories, and if the night janitor spends a little more time around the Dorms, warm water can be had for shaving at least.

The dormitory students are all glad for the return of Mrs. Schmidt as cook again for the coming year.

The number of girls working in the dining room has been reduced to three instead of four girls as formerly was the case. Extra quality no doubt has justified the reduction.

The table seating was arranged some two weeks ago, putting Gov. Terrell at the head of one table and Senior men at the heads of the other tables.

There has been very little competition for the davenport thus far. Mr. Cole and Mr. Winters are the sole competitors, and as Mr. Cole needs it Badley he usually gets it.

Anyone desiring to see Gov. Terrell can find him at the Men's Dorm any evening that doesn't happen to be a study hour.

realize their responsibility as young people for Christian service.

October 3

Rev. Gervas Carey brought the first real message of the year to the Y. M. C. A. October 3. His text was, "Quit You Like Men!"

Paul meant virtue of character in this short command. Some boys while in college carry the attitude of aloofness, others the "chip-on-the-shoulder" attitude, and still others the attitude of being sensitive. But the attitude everyone should carry is that of a good sport, keen for the give and take of life. This sportsmanship should be carried towards other individuals and in social contacts. For example an open countenance and bearing, looking others in the face rather than shiftiness of eyes. The best tribute to pay to any fellow is to say, "He is a manly fellow."

Mr. Carey closed his talk by reading a poem by Edgar A. Guest entitled, "The Man Who Gets Promoted."

PEACE TOUR TAKEN

did their own cooking, and survived, too! Mr. Choate was chief cook and Mr. Winters was fire builder, chief dish washer and general handy man. Sleeping under the stars was an enjoyable experience. Whenever possible, the boys took advantage of the swimming holes when they camped by a river.

Making the dates and meeting new people every day was a valuable experience, as was the learning to adapt the lecture to the particular audience to which they were speaking.

It was almost worth the trip just for the beautiful scenery seen by the boys. The Sexton mountains, the ocean, Mt. McLaughlin, Crater Lake and many other pretty places were visited during the trip.

The last lecture together was given at Madras, Oregon, near the home of Mr. Winters, Sunday night, August 26. The next day Mr. Choate drove to Perry, Oregon, where he attended the Young Friends Conference until Thursday morning, when he went on to Greenleaf, Idaho.

Mr. Choate gave the two lectures and the pictures at each of the five points of the Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting during the two weeks he was home and thus added four hundred to the total number of people spoken to during the summer.

The work was very much worth while to the boys and will be of unlimited value to them in their life work.

GOLD "P" CLUB

This men's club is composed of men who have won letters in intercollegiate sports for Pacific. The Gold "P" Club sponsors the athletics of the college and creates the interest in athletics for the men. The club endeavors to get every college man interested in at least one form of athletics.

Initiations of new letter men are held at the close of each season.

The annual banquet is open to all former letter men as well as to present members of the club.

Gold "P" officers are:

President Ben Huntington
Secretary-Treasurer and Social Committee Chairman Charles Beals

Y. W. C. A.

September 26

The first meeting of the Y. W. was held Sept. 26. A very helpful talk was given by Miss Mary Sutton, Y. W. C. A. adviser.

There were two questions which Miss Sutton left in our minds. What elements of character does our association bring out in the lives of others? What elements do they bring out in us? As certain figured material shows new lights and colors when it is held over other material, so our lives show different colors when they are associated with others. We can not keep from showing the results of contact with others. It is not enough to try to keep from showing this. We should also make such a choice of our friends that our character will not be marred.

Lela and Esther Gulley sang a duet as special music for the meeting.

October 3

Miss Edith Minchin spoke in Y. W. October 3 on the subject of "Goals."

In athletics the runner does not push forward aimlessly but runs toward a goal. Paul, with his knowledge of this said, "I press toward the work for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus." Honest, noble purpose coupled with perseverance makes for real achievement. Daniel had a purpose in his heart when he refused to defile himself with the king's dainties, she said.

A great cathedral was being erected. One workman, when asked what he was doing, said that he was earning so much a day. Another said that he was working on a certain small task. The third said that he was building a cathedral.

Paul's goal was to know Christ. He pressed toward the goal regardless of hardships. Whether we are able to reach other goals or not, it is possible for us to know Christ. Although we may have a great ambition we should be faithful to the duty near at hand. If we look upon our work in life as "building a cathedral," we will have greater possibilities for our Christian life. We will be as certain of the prize as Paul was, she concluded.

Special music was furnished by Marjorie Nordyke and Marjorie Lewis.

SECRETARY ANNOUNCES HER ENGAGEMENT TO PRESIDENT

On Labor Day night about fifteen young people gathered at the home of Bernice Carlisle at Springbrook. The evening was spent in playing Rook. Three tables were used and on the center of each table was a large bowl of grapes and nuts. In each of these bowls was placed a "fictitious" nut. At about the same time these peculiar nuts from all three tables were opened, out of which spilled some beans. On small pieces of paper in the nut shells were written the announcement of the engagement of Bernice Carlisle to Sanford Brown. Soon the guests discovered on Buddy's finger a beautiful diamond ring.

The two young folks are popular members of the student body. Bernice is a member of the Sophomore class and Sanford a member of the Senior class and president of the Student Body.

STUDENTS ENTER FALL TENNIS TOURNAMENT

With school barely started, Tennis Manager Cole has already started a fall tournament. Smith, J. Haworth, De Vine, Cole, Kendall, Post and Gatch are signed up, and with the many workable combinations from this group some snappy games are looked forward to. If old Jupe Pluvius will only become interested in the God Morpheus these tournaments will soon be completed and another champion declared. Here's to more and better tennis!

Y. M. C. A. SPEAKERS ANNOUNCED

The Y. M. C. A. has been fortunate in securing two very worth-while speakers for the next two meetings. Wednesday, October 10, we will have the privilege of listening to Professor Gulley. Professor Gulley has had many very interesting experiences and will no doubt bring a very helpful message to all who attend.

Wednesday, October 17, Doctor Lee of the Newberg Presbyterian church will speak. Doctor Lee likes to be "with the fellows" and has always supported the college and college activities to the best of his ability. He always leaves a marked impression on students because he just talks to them and inspires them to higher things. All student and faculty men are urged to be present at these meetings.

WITH THE ALUMNUS

Wendell Hutchens is attending medical college in Portland.

Miss Lolita Hinshaw is teaching at Elkton, Oregon.

Miss May Pearson is teaching at Oakland, Oregon.

Miss Mildred Choate is teaching at Greenleaf, Idaho.

The former Miss Retha Tucker is now Mrs. Waldo Jones.

Miss Lois Jones is teaching near Jordan Valley, Oregon.

THE HULLS ENTERTAIN IN FIRST CHAPEL OF 1928-1929

The first chapel of the college year convened in Wood-Mar Hall on the morning of September 19th. The program was of varied nature. Eva Hummer Hull played two delightful numbers on the piano, and Professor Alexander Hull gave two vocal numbers which greatly pleased the student group. The main hour was occupied by President Pennington's address of welcome
