PACIFIC TRACKMEN SURPRISE PIRATES

Bissett Is High Point Man for Pacific "Thinly-Clads"

Seven stalwart Pacific trackmen journeyed to Albany and gave Albany college the surprise of its track career, taking four firsts, the relay, and several seconds and thirds to run off a total of fifty-six points to seventy-five for the seventeen Pirates who represented Albany. A large crowd was on hand to witness the meet which took place on the Linn County fair grounds at Albany, Friday afternoon, April 5th.

Bob Bissett, Pacific "all-around" man, copied high honors of the day by capturing twenty-four points from the Pirate band single-handed. He took three first places, the high and low hurdles, and the hundred; and three second places, the two twenty yard dash, the high jump, and the pole vault. Dick Haworth showed his distance running ability when he took second in both the mile and the half mile runs and then came back in the two mile race and nosed out Harvey of Albany in a beautiful run featured by an exciting finish. Dick Everest, Link Wirt, Damon McKibben, and Wendell Hansen all performed very creditably for P. C. in gathering up the remaining points of the fifty-six.

Numerous puddles, a strong wind, and the fact that the track itself was a half mile horse race track handicapped the participants and caused the times made to be rather slow. Bill Wood, Coach Gulley and President Pennington accompanied the team and did most of the rooting and boosting for those "plucky six." The Pacific boys made a very good showing and certainly upset all dope by holding the Pirates to so close a score with only six men competing. Even at that, the track events were about even. Albany secured their advantage by winning several firsts and seconds in the field events.

The Score by Events

GLEE CLUB CONCERT IS EXCELLENTLY GIVEN

High Quality Program Enthusiastically Received at Wood-Mar Hall

The Pacific College double male quartet made their initial appearance in the chapel of Wood-Mar hall on the evening of April first. Under the able direction of Prof. Alexander Hull a most delightful and varied program was presented, all of the usual high quality that is sponsored by the college school of music. The nine young men, all excellent singers, who composed the company, interpreted the various numbers and presented them in a manner which justified their having an audience many times larger than the one they had. The numbers were most enthusiastically received and repeatedly encored.

The club personnel is: Philip Gatch and Arthur Winters, first tenors; Lincoln Wirt and Stanley Kendall, second tenors; Frank Cole and Dennis McGuire, baritones; William Wood, Burton Frost and Kenneth Crabtree, basses. The program was delightfully varied by numbers on the strings. Herbert Owen, Clifton Parrett, violins, with Prof. Hull as 'cellist and Eva Hummer Hull as pianist, have won for themselves the highest praise from former performances before local audiences. They played three very delightful numbers.

Too high praise cannot be given to these performers of Monday night's concert. Possibly the best pieces of interpretation were in the presenting of the old Russian folk song, "The Volga Boatman," and MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose." Other numbers ranging from sacred to humorous were presented with equal finesse.

Other added features of the program were a group of two readings, "It Takes a Girl to Do It," and "Fishing," given by Frank Cole, and tenor, bass and baritone solos by Stanley Kendall, Philip Gatch, Burton Frost, Dennis McGuire and Kenneth Crabtree.

The home concert of this men's double quartet is but the opening of what is hoped will later develop into a series of concerts given in nearby cities.

SKATING PARTY ENJOYED BY STUDENT VACATIONISTS

An enjoyable skating party was given by Mary Sue Binford on the night of April 9. The group met at the High School at 8 o'clock and were later joined by a few of the Freshman play cast. The amusements of the evening included skating, "joy" riding, falls, games, and eats. The latter consisted of mince pie, chocolate, and cookies. Those present were: Mary Sue Binford, LaVerne Hutchens, Lillian Barnes, Dorothea Nordyke, Ethel Newberry, Winnifred Woodward, Della Hanville, Marian Coffee, Miss Verplank, Errett Hummel, Dennis McGuire, Ralph Moore, Elmore Jackson, Harold Smith, Burton Frost, Veldon Diment, Marion DeVine, Ervin Diment, William Wood, Charles Crane, and Damon McKibben.

CAMPUS DAY PROGRAM IS HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL

Students and Faculty Combined Efforts Transform Campus Appearance

Campus day is past. Hands are blistered and muscles are sore. Everybody is sunburned, tired, and happy. Jupe Pluvius took his holiday and gave us a beautiful, warm day for ours.

Now we look back into history and again live through our individual tasks. In giving Pacific's campus its annual cleaning on Monday, April 1, students and teachers worked together.

With Miss Sutton's help the front campus committee set shrubs around Wood-Mar and Canyon halls.

Another committee put the tennis courts into shape, putting concrete in the chuck holes of the paved court and repairing weakened backstops. They raked leaves from the clay courts, smoothed the surfaces, packed in a layer of sawdust, and laid out lines.

Miss Betts, Mrs. Wood, and Miss Johnston supervised the cleaning of Wood-Mar, the chemistry shack, and the Academy building, respectively.

The back campus committee, with Dick Haworth's tireless supervision and participation, removed huge quantities of oak boughs and leaves from the grounds to the bonfire. The girls did their full share of raking, while the men fed the flames.

President Pennington comprised his own committee, which, clad in blue overalls and a tan flannel shirt, pruned the fruit trees behind the men's dormitory.

Prof. Gulley and Dick Everest, with a large crew, put the athletic field into shape. Spud Post brought his Chevrolet truck, which, among other things, dragged the baseball diamond, giving a half dozen students a thrilling ride.

When the eats committee, which apparently worked the least, served us an excellent and ample picnic luncheon, which bore testimony to much careful preparation. The lunch included baked beans, meat and fish loaves, vegetable salads, sandwiches, dill pickles, ice cream and cake. Prof. Gulley forgot to bring a spoon, so he carved a wooden one. The spoon seemed to be a failure, however, for everything he put on it disappeared, probably within the fringed and eagle-bedecked Mexican deerskin jacket he wore.

After the inward cravings were satisfied we turned to recreation. There were the girls' 60 yard dash, won by Esther Roberts; the men's 100 yard dash, won by Lincoln Wirt; and the girls' baseball throw, won by Elinor Whipple with a throw of 57 yards.

Then came our first baseball game of the season, with Reed. The visitors made four runs in the first inning before our team tightened up its plays, but during the third we brought in four. The score was four up during the next five innings until, in the first of the ninth a Reed hit brought in two runs. Our team's efforts in the last half were fruitless, and the final score stood at 6-4.

After the game, a small group went swimming in the Willamette, as probably a large number of people would have enjoyed doing to close the strenuous day of work and play.

Play practicing is the thing to be done now. Work is being done on the Freshman play and the A. S. B. play.

LADIES' AUXILIARY SPONSORS SOCIAL

Wood-Mar Hall Is the Scene of Delightful Entertainment

The Ladies' Auxiliary to Pacific College sponsored a most delightful social affair in Wood-Mar Hall on Friday evening, April nineteenth.

Husbands of the ladies, friends and members of the college student body were the guests of the ladies, who had gone to a great deal of effort to make the evening an enjoyable one.

The spacious lower hall of the building was tastefully decorated to look inviting, and here the guests were received. Programs directed each one from room to room where various forms of entertainment were provided. In one room "gum models" were made and put on display. In another was a display of various scenes, some also variously constructed, each one depicting some masterpiece of literature. In another room the guests went in search for the "missing link." It all remained rather a mystery until a weiner was presented to Gervas A. Carey; there had been two and the other one was missing.

The main feature of the evening was a short but splendid program presented by the college students in the chapel. First was a skit, "Among My Souvenirs," with Richard Haworth as the dreamy, soon-to-be-groom. In packing his suitcase on the eve of his wedding day he chanced upon a group of photographs which were of his old sweetheart. Beginning with the girl in half socks, a gingham apron and a big hair ribbon, the "live pictures" which cleverly portrayed the young man's meditations were shown. Next came the high school and college friends. Then the Red Cross nurse—for he was wounded in France—and the girl he met on the boat coming home. But these were merely "souvenirs" in view of the approaching reality, and the live picture of a lovely bride portrayed dreams come true. Throughout the skit each picture was accompanied by fitting vocal selections sung off-stage by Frank Cole.

The College double male quartet was most enthusiastically enjoyed, with Prof. Alexander Hull their director and accompanist. They sang three numbers, "I Pass By Your Window," "Over Summer Seas" and "The Mosquito Song."

At the close of the program the ladies served punch and cake. The evening proved one of pleasant diversion and offered opportunity for sociability and acquaintance.

MRS. PENNINGTON RECEIVES INJURY

Sunday morning, April 21, Mrs. Levi T. Pennington suffered the misfortune of slipping from a wet step at the Woodward home and breaking both bones of her left leg. She was taken to her home and the physician took an x-ray picture of the break. The belief was expressed that the break was one which could be set satisfactorily.

We of the Associated Student Body extend to Mrs. Pennington our sympathy and hope her recovery will be a speedy one.

OUR LIVES

Not long ago I sat before a fireplace and watched the leaping flames as I listened to a radio program from a city nearly a thousand miles away. As I sat there and heard that beautiful music I thought of this great invention, the radio, in comparison to our daily lives. I have never seen those musicians, and as they sent out that music from that far-away studio, they could not have known that I was going to listen to their program, and yet that music made a lasting impression upon me.

As we associate together as students, we are apt to forget just how much influence we have. Little do we realize how our words and actions may make the life of a fellow student either better or worse because of our having lived that day.

I think the idea has been very clearly portrayed in the following poem:

My life shall touch a dozen lives before this day is done;
Leave countless marks for good or ill ere sets this evening's sun.
Shall fair or foul its imprint prove on those my life shall hail?
Shall benison my impress be, or shall a blight prevail?

Think about it!

JAPANESE PROGRAM GIVEN

The Trefan Literary Society met in the dormitory parlors Wednesday afternoon. The meeting was the first one for the new members, Ethel Newberry, Doris Gettman and Florence Elliot. After a short business meeting the following program was presented:

Japanese Poetry, by Mrs. Sutton.

Japanese Music, by Genevieve Badley.

The brief insight into such intimate Japanese life was instructive as well as interesting.

At the end of the program the meeting was adjourned and the social committee served the society with tea and tea cakes.

GROUP SPENDS WEEK AT NELSCOTT BEACH

Spring vacation brought its usual "departure" from the dormitories. The largest group spending the week in one place was a group of eight students who motored to Nelscott Beach on Friday evening April 5, 1929. The group consisted of Generva Street, Esther Roberts, Genevieve Badley, Frank Cole, Prof. Terrell, Lincoln Wirt, Walter Taylor, and Ralph Choate. Mrs. H. M. Hoskins of Newberg kindly offered her cottage to these people and acted in the capacity of chaperone. Each member declares he had the best time possible, and who wouldn't! The time was spent eating, sleeping, reading, playing games—inside and on the beach—hiking, swimming, riding, and skating. The group returned Saturday evening, April, 13, 1929.

VACATION NEWS

Glen Rinard spent part of his vacation in Portland.

Charles Beals made the most of his leisure time by working on his thesis. He stayed in Portland in order to have access to the Public Library there.

Several dormitory boys spent a worth while vacation for everybody, since they worked on our campus, cutting down trees and clearing away underbrush. These boys were: Noel Bowman, Elmore Jackson, Glen Rinard, Richard Haworth, Wendell Hansen, and Damon McKibben. Walter Taylor worked the latter part of the week.

Mr. Arthur Winters was called away Thursday, April 4, 1929, on account of a serious accident to his father. He returned Sunday, April 14, 1929, and reports that his father is recovering slowly.

Miss Dorothy Verplank, Marian Coffee, Lois Rice, and Mrs. Schmidt remained in Newberg where skating parties and other good times were enjoyed.

Several "dormitory-ites" took advantage of Spring weather and drove to Oswego Lake Wednesday evening, April 3, 1929, to try their hands at canoeing. Those who met with exceptional success are Esther Roberts, Miss Verplank, and Ralph Choate. Prof. Terrell, Elinor Whipple and Damon McKibben enjoyed encouraging these people in their efforts, by much laughter and not so much assistance. Ask them about it and they'll tell you a funny story.

Misses Helen and Elinor Whipple returned to their home in Vancouver, Washington, for the vacation days.

Miss Rachel Lundquist traveled to Oakland, Oregon, where she visited Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Winslow and Miss May Pearson.

Miss Betty Works enjoyed her vacation at her home in Portland.

Miss Gwen Hansen and Miss Leona Freeman spent the vacation at their respective homes—Oswego, Ore., and Donald, Ore.

Dennis McGuire and Ben Huntington, with their parents, spent Sunday, April 7, at Nelscott Beach.

MEMORIES

You may have studied history but have you ever seen history made or have you ever aided in its making? We are observing and taking part in the final chapter in the life of Pacific Academy. Next year there will be no Academy, only a small group of sub-Freshmen. For many years students have attended the Preparatory department; its closing will be regretted by both students and faculty.

We are witnessing the passing of a time-honored institution. At the close of this semester the Academy will be but a memory. Each of us will have his own attitude, yet we all should strive to keep our memories alive. We are presented with an opportunity. Our actions now will govern our individual memories of the last semester here in P. A.—D.

The spick and span appearance of the Academy and neighboring grounds, due to the efforts expended on Campus Day, is very inspiring. Let's keep it so.

LABORING THIRD YEARS

The Third Year class of P. A. is a hard working bunch. If you don't believe it, you should have visited some of them during vacation and taken a look for yourself. Morris Silver is becoming an accomplished plowman and bachelor. Carl Sandoz hunted wild flowers as other in the Botany class had planned to do. Marian Coffee spent her vacation studying, skating, and playing rook. Besides working, Walter Taylor found time to go to the coast. Meredith Davey believes in pleasure, and went to Neskowin to find it. Walter, Meredith, and Veldon were in Portland at different times during the vacation.

ATHENA INSTALLATION

On Wednesday, March 27, in the parlor of the Girls' Dormitory the Athena held the installation of officers for the new year. Lillian Barnes turned the gavel over to Meredith Davey. La Verne Hutchens was elected to the office of Marshall to fill the vacancy left when Elizabeth Lingle resigned. Dorothea Woods, accompanied by Mary Sue Binford, sang "The Rosary." Eva Kendall reported upon Florence M. Barclay's book by that name. The meeting was pronounced successful by the critic.

La Verne Hutchens, Mary Sue Binford, and Veldon Diment attended the Oregon state Christian Endeavor convention held in Salem from the eighteenth to the twenty-first of April.

VACATION CELEBRATED

The home of Vera Bauman was the scene of a lively party on Friday evening, April 5.

Games of Rook, Pit, and Touring were played and the player piano furnished a great deal of enjoyment. After the games, refreshments of sandwiches, cake and punch were served.

Those present to enjoy this good time were: LaVerne Hutchens, Meredith Davey, Della Hanville, Lois Rice, Mary Sue Binford, Arloene Davey, Lillian Barnes, Winifred Woodward, Dorothea Woods, Vera Bauman, Dick Haworth, Philip Gatch, Othel Schmoie, Merlin Brown, Lincoln Wirt, Bill Wood, Damon McKibben, Errett Hummel, Dennis McGuire, Marion DeVine, and Elmore Jackson.

ACADEMY GIRLS ENTERTAIN

Winnifred Woodward and Lillian Barnes entertained a group of their friends Thursday evening, April 11. The guests met at the home of the former and spent the early part of the evening skating. They then returned to the Woodward home where everyone enjoyed Rook and other games until refreshments were served. The skaters were: the hostesses, Miss Verplank, Mary Schmeltzer, Edith Kendall, Mary Sue Binford, Marian Coffee, Margaret Nordyke, Errett Hummel, Walter Taylor, Carl Sandoz, Burton Frost, Morris Silver, and Eldon Newberry.

STUDENT INJURES THUMB

Wesley Kaufman received an injury to his left thumb while taking gym on Wednesday, April 17. He was picking up the shot just as one of the boys happened to be throwing the discus. In some strange manner the discus hit Wesley's hand, smashing the thumb between the shot and discus. The doctor said the bone was not injured.

ELECTIONS POSTPONED

The Academy Student Body, in a meeting held Thursday, April 4, discussed the matter of elections, which had been laid on the table at the last meeting. It was finally voted that no new officers be elected. The present officers will continue their work until the end of this semester.

Eldon Newberry lost his dog in Tualatin during vacation but found him in that city three days later.

Ronald Hutchens and Cecil Newberry recently caught four fish in a pond near Rex.

Almost everyone in the Fourth Year class went to Portland at some time during Spring vacation.

Rosa Bisbee and LaVerne Hutchens spent part of spring vacation visiting with relatives in Portland.

March 27

"Our Calls" was the subject of Miss Minchen's talk in Y. W. March 27. She took John 11 as her text or theme, about Bethany where Christ lived with Mary, Martha, and Lazarus. She mentioned that He calls to each one of us as He called to Mary, and He is a patient and kind teacher. He also seeks for disciples and calls us to service. "We should not let other things, as business and society," she concluded, "stand in the way of His call. And as we live under the shadow of the cross, we should listen to His call. If we have answered the call to come to Him, we will be able to answer His call when He comes again.

April 3

The installation of officers of the Y. W. was held April 3. The following were installed:

President—Genevieve Badley
Vice-President—Elisabeth Carey
Secretary—Helen Whipple
Treasurer—Elinor Whipple
Under-Graduate Representative—Ethel Newberry

Chairmen of Committees: Religious Meetings—Margaret Jackson. Social Service—Dorothea Nordyke. Social—Della Hanville. Student Fellowship—La Verne Hutchens. Music—Esther Gulley. Deputation—Generva Street.

Special music consisted of a violin solo by Eldon Newberry, and a duet by Marjorie and Constance Lewis. The meeting was closed by Miss Mary Sutton, faculty advisor for next year.

Y. M. C. A.

April 17

"Sports; An Educational Asset or Liability," was the subject of a splendid talk given by Rev. Carey in Y. M. C. A. meeting April 17. Mr. Carey stated in the beginning that the attitude we take towards sports determines their value to us.

Sportsmanship and courtesy are inseparable. We must appreciate the good points of our opponents and go into the game with the idea of "May the best man win," but let us always strive to be the best man.

Rev. Carey also said that self-control was a mark of a sportsman. The man who loses his self control in a game marks a weak point in the team. Let us outplay rather than outrattle.

Last he spoke of the relation of sportsmanship and Christian conduct, saying, "Let us do ourselves what we appreciate on the part of our opponents."

The Y. M. was favored at this meeting with a duet by Lela and Esther Gulley, accompanied by Esther Mueller.

CHAPEL TALKS

March 28

Harry Stone, General Secretary of the Portland Y. M. C. A., spoke on "Immortality." We are coming again this week to meditate on immortality," he said. "We can't be satisfied with a theory. The only thing that really satisfies is Christ." With Easter comes a new consciousness of the risen, miracle-working, overcoming, redeeming Christ, whom to know is life eternal, and a new realization of the power of endless life."

March 29

"What, after all, does the resurrection of Jesus Christ mean to me?" was the theme discussed by Rev. Gervas Carey, who pointed out that it is the final proof that Jesus is Christ. "It is a guarantee that death shall not have dominion over me," he said. It anticipates a new life of purity and beauty in which individual identity persists."

April 2

The meaning of the term "Christian" as applied to individual experience, was analyzed by President Pennington. To become a Christizan does not mean affiliation with a certain group, or going through certain ceremonies and spectacular outward expressions, he said. There are certain steps in becoming a Christian. These are conviction, repentance, conversion and justification."

April 4

J. J. Hansaker, Regional Director of Near East Relief in Oregon, spoke, showing some aspects of Armenian relief work in the past and in the present. The Near East enterprise is in its last stage after 13 years of work by other nations, said Mr. Hansaker. He then went on to show the contribution of Oregon to this work. Besides the extensive contribution of clothing, food and money, several Oregon men and women have given their lives. The speaker told of some of the relief work which these have done. In conclusion Mr. Hansaker told of self sacrifice and real service of Christopher Thurbor to suffering humanity in the Near East."

April 5

The student chapel committee presented a program at chapel on Friday. Ruby Brisbane led the devotional period. The skit, "Memories," was presented. The principal character was Richard Haworth, who, as the story reveals, is to be married the next day. He takes occasion to look over a pile of old photographs, which he has almost forgotten. As he looks at these, one by one, he sees in memory girls of his former devotion. He comments to himself about each one, and then some appropriate song is heard and the curtains at the back of the stage are slowly parted, revealing to the eyes of the audience the picture which he sees in memory."

His memory turns to old days of happiness and the strains of "Among My Souvenirs" are heard. Then he remembers his school days, and, as "School Days" is sung, we see the representation of his sweetheart. Then he sees his high school days again, and "When You and I Were Seventeen" is heard. When he remembers his love for the nurse over in France, "Over There" is played. In similar manner his memories of college days and his days on the sea are accompanied by "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" and "Moonlit Waters."

The last representation is of his bride-to-be in her wedding dress, as "O Promise Me" is sung, followed by strains of a wedding march."

A very interesting talk was given by Francis K. Jones, who was formerly a teacher in Pacific College, and has been engaged in educational work in California in recent years. Mr. Jones told reminiscences of school life here when the school was very young. He spoke of the conditions in Newberg then, especially those on the campus. At that time the faculty consisted of six teachers, including the President.

As in any matter of consideration, size does not tell the value, so in a college, Mr. Jones pointed out. He spoke of his happy days here and of the splendid quality of the student in attendance here.

In conclusion the speaker suggested that we should welcome problems. It is a good thing to be required to meet hard things, for each mastery is a real victory."
