LOCAL CHURCH HOST OF JOINT RECEPTION

Friends Church Entertains New Students and Faculty

A most delightful occasion occurred on the evening of Friday, October 11th, when the members of the Friends church were joint hosts and hostesses at a reception tendered the new college students and faculty members. The spacious church parlors were tastefully and appropriately decorated with flower decorations and lighted flowers. The opening feature of the new Gubralpiano piano was played through the courtesy of Kiepe & Sons. Upon arriving, each guest was given ten beans and asked to speak in the plain language the Friends. The entertainment was made in not using the plain language, a bean was forfeited, and prizes were awarded to those who, at the conclusion of a set period of time, had not consumed the greatest number of beans.

The order changed and glimpse was a part of the private life of some prominent, present day families which included Mr. and Mrs. Schuman-Heilmann, Pennington, Edison, and the Cloidille family, some of whom the judges awarded highest honors. The Cloidille family enacted a skit in two acts portraying the President out hunting. The first act showed the President in his refusal to run in the next presidential campaign. The second showed him "hunting" peculiar birds in which he received an award, which flew from the box label "Ex-President Employment Agency."

He shot a number of fine birds such as °College Presidency," "Mayor of New York," "President of Brooklyn College."

Following this impromptu medley of presidential cuteness a musical program was presented. Mary Bes Fencl played a delightful program on the piano, and Miss Deidra Hanville in two delightful musical readings. Frank Cole sang a solo, accompanied on the piano by Genevieve Bailey.

At the conclusion of the evening refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table presided over by Mrs. Amanda Woodward and Mrs. L. M. Parker.

FORMER STUDENTS UNITED IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY

A wedding of considerable interest to the college community occurred on Sun- day, September thirtieth, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hanville, where Miss Ruth Tucker became the bride of Mr. Waldo Jones of Twin Falls, Idaho. Miss Deidra Woodard sang "Oh Promise Me," accompanied on the piano by Rachel Lundquist, who also played Fencl's "Wedding Procession," as the bridal party took their way. The "bridal train" extended and was extended by Miss Deidra Hanville, and the groom by Mr. William Stuart. Rev. Gervis A. Carey, pastor of the Newberg Friends church, read the ring ceremony.

CAMPAIGN FOR $100,000 Banquet Under Way

President Levi T. Pennington is turning over his classes temporarily to other members of the faculty, that he may give a larger portion of his time to the campaign for the $100,000, banquet.

For a time this work has not been going rapidly for several reasons, the chief of which is the fact that the campaign, October 16th, and the banquet is now on and the college must not interfere with that campaign, of course. Besides, Mr. Eric V. Haver, the Portland leader of this campaign, has been away from the city since September 20 and will be until near the close of October; and President Pennington had to go to the college work at the opening of the school year.

Professor Lewis will take the Shakespeare class for a few weeks, Professor Hasty the Acts and Epistles class, and Professor Wellenk the Ethics class, which will leave President Pennington free to make a trip to the banquet in Newberg, Salem, and Portland.

Substantial progress has been made in the solicitation and we now go on as far as follows:

Newberg business men's campaign $14,100.00
Pacific College Students 1800.00
Pacific College Faculty 885.00
Eastern Contributions 10,056.50
Miscellaneous 1,485.00

Total $37,540.00

It is the plan to push a much more active solicitation, after the Portland Community Chest Campaign which will probably be held late in November. The exact date has not been fixed.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT HEADS TO HOLLAND FOR MASTERS' STUDY IN PROPORTIONAL TONES

The college community regrets the near coming departure of Eva Hul- ler Hull and Prof. and Mrs. Alexander Willard who have taken their residence in Portland. For some time at the work the college has not been sufficient for Prof. and Mrs. Hull and they are now, in addition to their work at the college, setting up a studio in Portland, and also Professor Hull will take up more work along the line of literary criticism, for which he is most capable.

Although losing them from residence, the college is not losing the services of these two able artists for who so many years have been members of the faculty force and directors of the School of Music. Their many friends are happy that they will be embarking on a foreign territory and will undoubtedly be of greater influence.

The school year 1928-29 is here. Let us extend a hearty welcome to all new students and start this fall term off with a bang. After all life itself is divided into three terms—that which is, that which was, and that which will be. Let us learn from the first term to profit by the present, and from the present to live better for the future. At this time we may be turning from our summer's labor and endeavors to a life of expenditures. Let us spend our time wisely, work every hour, paid or unpaid, see that our work is honest, and we cannot help receiving our reward. The reward of a well done thing is to be able to say it is actually done.

Sanford L. Brown, Pres. A. S. B. for P. C.

RECEPTION OF WELCOME GIVEN TO NEW STUDENTS

The combined efforts of both the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. social committee afforded the college students and faculty members a most delightful "get-acquainted" affair on Friday evening, Sept. 7, at Wood-Mar Hall. The ice being broken, about one hundred people, yes, faculty included, entered one hundred per cent into the spirit of the evening. Competitive games were played after folks "gave their names."

Formal welcome was given new students when a short program convened in the college chapel. It is the aim of the Y. W. C. A. and Y. M. C. A. to interest all newcomers in the college Christian activities and with this theme Margaret Jackson, vice-president, and Arthur Winters, president, of the respective associations, gave short talks. Roger MacFarlane played two saxophone numbers, Delia Hanville gave a musical recital, Philip Gatch and a Mr. Pennington gave a short address of welcome of both his former and prospective class mates. Some of his former classmates included, among those who sang, with student bodies of Pacific a few of his former classmates mingled with the student body of the present student body. Several graduates and old students are that year members of the faculty force.

RALPH CHAOTE AND ARTHUR WINTERS TAKE PEACE TOUR

Arthur Winters and Ralph Chaote were privileged to represent Pacific Col- lege in the Peace Tour. Beginning June 19, they spent ten weeks in Oregon giving lectures and concerts on the Peace question. These boys were working under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee and were provided with a second lecture set by the committee.

The first three weeks were spent on the coast, speaking in towns from Astor to Bandon. This section of the work was the most enjoyable because of the good times they had meeting fellow classmates and friends who were living near the beaches.

Ralph Tillmann's work took the boys along the Pacific Highway as far south as Astoria, A fishing lantern was used by the boys in their work. Lectures were given every night except Saturday and twice on Monday most weeks.

A. S. B. VACANCIES ARE Filled

The officials left vacant this year from that among the officers of the Associated Student Body of Pacific College were, treasurer, associate editor of the Crusader; radio, and art leader. At the meeting of the student body last Thursday, Edith Eastwood, President, Ralph Chaote, associate editor of the Crusader, and Charles Beals yeal leader, entertained in athletics and in forensics and debate. Many social events are held throughout the year. The success of all these activities depends entirely on the students that attend or take part. Let us get behind all the activities of Pacific College and pledge our strongest support.

One of the most vital necessities of a student is the Christian Association meetings held each Wednesday. This also takes support from each member of the student body. Support student chapel, and if called on to entertain or take part in that, do it.

A man who is running a store can't obtain results and profits if he doesn't keep adding onto his stock all the time. He must put into it in order to get more out of it, and the more he puts in the more he gets out of it. Let us, as students, put all we have into school this year, and people who are able to support us should and call it a success due in part to our own efforts extended in that direction.

ATHLETICS

What is going to be our attitude toward athletics for the coming school year? There is certainly room for improvement over last year, and with the many new students in school it is possible it can be better.

We have a new coach this year, a man whom we all know by reputation, a man who has brought our school more athletic fame than any other one man who is ambitious for and interested in us. Let's get behind him. He is a big man but he needs help and we are the only ones who can help him. We can help him by working in every way we can for athletics.

Turn out for the team—root if you can't play. Be there the Monday we make this year a red letter year for P. C. Athletics.

Don't disappoint the new coach. Don't be an "Also Ran!"

NEWCOMERS

We, the Crescent staff, heartily welcome all new students and faculty members. Let us all heartily cooperate in all school activities, both by aiding directly and byboosting your alma mater at every chance you get. A student body is just what the students themselves make it. What we make it, what we become should be and keep up the high standards which have been set by our predecessors. Again we say—WELCOME!

STOKER VIEWS THE HULLS

Students and faculty have been making the acquaintance of young Alexander Hull II, who arrived during vacation. Mr. Hull, who is in his second year as a junior, is a native of Portland and a member of the varsity football team.

LYCEUM COURSE FOR 1928-29 ANNOUNCED

School of Music will be given by the Hulls early in January. Many audiences do not need to be told that this will be one of the best numbers on the program. Chamber music, including vocal program, and musical readings and recitations to have a place on the program, with what delightful surprises only the Hulls will know until the program is presented.

The course will have another of the Portland celebrity attractions, Mr. Frank W. Frank, who will be Tuesday evening. January 22. Mr. Frank has just returned from a study of affairs in the Orient and has two new lectures, "China—Student or a Nightmare" and "Japan of Myth and Fact." It is quite likely, however, that he will be asked to give here his inspirational lecture, "Getting By Your Hoody." If anyone should be able to speak convincingly on this subject it is Mr. Frank. Hull.

Born in a Cincinnati tenement with a background of poverty and struggle, taking up his school work in the sixth grade at thirteen, with college work at Berea, Pacific University, and University of Michigan. Mr. Frank has just achieved real fame as a platform orator.

The closing date of the course will appear Friday evening, February 7, a delightful program of painting, sculpture, and music presented by the Caveny Company, J. Franklin, R. E. Caveny, a noted cartoonist and clay modeler, heads the company and presents a delightful and artistic program of art production in painting and sculpture.

Mrs. Mary M. Caveny, a charming ten- year soprano, who adds much to the attractiveness of the program, and Miss Hazel Brown, solo pianist and accom- panist, complete an exceptionally strong faculty.

The price of the course will be the same as usual, $2.00 for adults and $1.00 for students of college, high school or public school. The canvases for tickets will be put on within a few days.

Following the songs and merriment while the young couple were repeated the congratulations of their friends Miss Lanquist and Miss Walter Gerber's "Woodland Elf's" body. Mid-sessions of rice Mr. and Mrs. Jones left by automobile for their "Twins Falls." Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Pacific College in the class of '26, while Mr. Jones was a former member of the class of '22.

STUDENT CHAPEL FAVORED

The students are to conduct one chapel a week this semester as they did last semester of last year. At the meeting of the student body last Thursday a vote was taken and a unanimous ballot was cast in favor of Student Chapel. The students are behind this move whole-heartedly and have pledged themselves to take part in these exercises if called upon (if talent permits).

ACTIVITIES OF PACIFIC COLLEGE STUDENTS

FORENSICS
Each passing day brings with it the greater need for public speakers. In order to begin to meet this need the college of forensics should encourage the student to think clearly and quickly and to serve more than an audience and to be able to talk about present day problems. The forensics opportunities of intercollegiate debate are attractive for the students. These contests develop a student's ability to think and help him to realize the depth and scope of great, real problems that face us today. They also bring about friendly relations with other colleges and show the student how others think about these great questions.

Oratory
In March of each year the "Old Line" contest is held and in April of each year the "New Line" contest takes place. These contests are under the auspices of the Inter-Collegiate Association of Oregon, of which Pacific College is a member.

The college representatives for these contests are chosen by local tryouts, which are held in order to obtain the greatest interest possible. The winner of the local tryout tryout receives twenty-five dollars in gold, and participation provides in either category, debate is rewarded by a small "Q" pre- sented in the class roll for the state, and for greater interest in both debate and oratory this year.

Dramatics
Dramatics are now given a larger place each year among the activities of the college. The department, which was given last year was well received. With the hard work and good time the cast has had this year the show is in good shape and in full preparation for the next production. As a part of the class night program, both the senior and the fourth year academic class present plays. In addition other classes and organizations give plays at various times throughout the year.

Because of the smaller college it is possible for many students to take part in dramatics, who would otherwise have a chance to appear in plays. This may be this better year for dramatics than we have ever had.

Music
For the student interested in music, Pacific provides several opportunities. In the first place, the music faculty offers a wide field of academic and practical experience. Every student who plays a musical instrument is urged to join the college band. There are also several other classes past directed excellent choirs and both men's and ladies' glee clubs.

Student Loan Fund
In order to start a Student Loan Fund, a better system of loaning is necessary. In the first place, the music faculty is interested in the following: the greater needs of the students and the exchange of ideas. Every student who plays a musical instrument is encouraged to join the college band. There are also several other classes past directed excellent choirs and both men's and ladies' glee clubs. COACH GULLEY
Director of Athletics at Pacific College

Prof. Gulley will be head coach at Pacific this year in all lines of athletics. It is hoped that the students will give him their wholehearted support. Prof. Terry will assist him.

Soccer to be Played at Pacific College

After such a successful season of soccer in 1927, Pacific has decided to again play the game next fall. Last year's goal was never crossed, and with the combination of last year's experience and several new men, we should be able to keep up the good record of Pacific men.

STAG MIG IS STILL WIDER

Oh, boy, what a sensation in this! And this is just the beginning of the long, long story which started at the semi-annual Y. M. C. A. stag mig can tell you of what happened in the vicinity of the gymnasium last Thursday evening.

From the time the first bow landed in the last watermelon rod sailed away into the distance, there was no bull in the ripening farce.

It started off with that game supposedly familiar to only old students, known as double Dutch. Anyway it always works. Ask a new student. He can change the rooster fights. We'll bet President Pennington can't always figure it. Dear Mr. Gulley cut our theme.

Did someone say something about blanket tossings? Oh, yes, that must have been at the stag mig too, and Arthur Winters is almost positive that was the final game.

Bromochboarding, dundal, Indian wrestling, and all kinds of gymnastics followed the evenings entertainments. And then the bombif. When everyone was Eugene "Grand" and was agreed that the evening someone had been standing up; and played, anyone lowered can only be adequately told by a few of the victims. Then all sneaked home at 9:45 still afraid of a watermelon sneer in the back of the head.

NEW FACES ARE SEEN ON PACIFIC FACULTY FORCE

There are six new faces on the Pacific faculty this year—three new men who are now as Pacific College faculty members, though they were once well known to students as students.

The former Pacific College students who are now on the faculty are Prof. Emmett W. Gulley, class of 1917; Helen Hester Wood, class of 1913; and Horace C. Treadwell, class of 1913 from 1919 to 1927, with a bachelor's degree from Emmanuel College.

Mr. Gulley is acting professor of Economics and Sociology during the year's sabbatical leave of absence of Professor F. W. Verbo. After his graduation in 1917 he took a year's work in Friends University since which time he has been teaching in the High School.

Horse C. Treadwell was also an applicant for a semester's office last year, and after his graduation from Dartmouth in 1913, he carried on his graduate work at Harvard University and the Chicago School. After his teaching work at Pacific College he studied for his Bachelor and History, and he will assist in athletics coaching.

The three teachers who are entirely new to Pacific College are Alice B. Myers, Miss Emma Miles and Miss Dorothy Verplanck.

Miss Myers, who succeeds Miss Erna Miles as Professor of French and German, took her undergraduate work at the University of California. She had two years of teaching experience there.

Miss Dorothy Verplanck, who succeeds Miss Alice Myers as Professor of English and director of physical training for women, was a graduate of Reed College in 1924, and for two years of her undergraduate work at Earlham college and her last two years at Whittier College she was a stenographer and secretary. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1925. Her graduate work was done at the University of Pennsylvania. She has been secretary of the Pacific branch of the American Friends Service Committee. Miss Verplanck has had experience in dormitory work for women, having had experience in dormitory work both at Earlham and Whitman, at the latter college as a student and the former as a dormitory assistant.
FRESHMEN WEEKLY SUBMIT TO ANNUAL INITIATION

Have you noticed the respectful and submissive attitude which the Freshmen have, for the last few days, manifested toward their superior class? This was obtained when they were subjected to the properly initiated Sophomores Thursday night, Sept. 27, in Green Memorial Hall. The pious and notable event. An hour or two was spent peaceably with games, tricks and songs. Then all the Freshmen were sent on an expedition down through the woods from which they returned some minutes later pale and trembling, but still alive and hopeful. They were blindfolded and led one by one through all kinds of terrible places and into the dungeon, where they were seated upon a box and fed raw eggs and allowed to lie in a substance which possessed a very extraordinary odor. In the meantime a nice green lawn was clipped to each Freshman's nail. Then the Sophomores led away the next one treated similarly. A few minor accidents occurred. One little Sophomore developed a green mustache which she was not looking for; and the group are well warranted who expected a certain quartz of ice-cream that was lost. However, as a whole, it was a very agreeable introduction and the Sophomores at least, enjoyed it immensely.

MANY NEW STUDENTS ENROLL AT PACIFIC

We feel that we are very fortunate in having such a good list of new students this year. We feel that those who live out of the state chose Pacific for their school because their homes were either too far away or too high in the air! The new students are as follows:

Lincoln Wirt, Berkeley, Calif.; Martin Washington, Neeley Bowman; Portland; Gerald Smith, Sherwood; Ross Walker, West Linn; Jeanette Worley, Newberg; Edith Hower, Woodstock; Robert Lingle, Newburg; Marvin Barnes, Newberg; Leona Freeman, Aurora; Norman Goodwin, Newburg; Berlyne Plowman, Everett; Wash.; Wesley Kaufman, Newberg; Ruby Bristow, Newberg; Walter Taylor, Delburne, Albertas, Can.; Verne Martin, Dundee; Bob Blaske, Newberg; Marion De Vinc, Newburg; Errett Hummel, The Dalles; Ed Holm, Colorado; Marjorie Waterman, Newberg; Florence Elliott, Newburg; Doris W. Newbury; Mary McCall, Newburg; Elmer Whipple, Vancouver; Dorothy Gudeman, North bend; Gertrude Sanders, Portland; Bertha May Rowland, Newburg; Lois Rice, Caldwell, Idaho.

TEMPORARY PARADISE

Wonderful dreams envelop my mind
As the world is class left behind,
Fanciful dreams pass over my eyes
And I'm drawn to a land of pleasant winds in summer lines.

The magic of Spain—her cathedral chimes,
All the splendor of foreign lands

Younger students of Indian—his ruddy lands,
All the romance of Scottish lore,

Battle of legend from Turkey's shore,
I listen with horror; I am appalled,
My dreams have vanished, my mind is blank,

Back to the schoolroom's noise and din I must admit, a summer impression fades away

R. W. LEWIS CHOSSEN TO FILL VACANCY LEFT BY PERISHIO

Professor Russell Lewis was elected to fill the vacancy left by Professor Perishio.

PROFESSOR R. W. LEWIS

Floyd Perishio as vice-president of the Pacific College faculty. Professor Lewis is head of the English department of Pacific College and has been connected with this institution a large number of years. Professor Perishio is in the east going to school, a doctor's degree being his goal.

SCHOOL GIVES WAY TO FAIR

College and academy students were dismissed in favor of the state fair at Salem, Friday, September 27. Quite a number of students took advantage of this opportunity to view the products of this fair.

The exhibits were very interesting and well worth any one's time to look at. The many accomplishments and amusement devices were patronized by many and well enjoyed.

In the afternoon the races became the center of attraction to most people. The races were quite interesting and the fastest two races between were well received by the crowd. This thing which seemed to draw the interest of the Pacific students most was the Ford soccer game. Some students declared that the best part of the fair.

In the evening the Horse Show was the main event and this drew a large crowd. The show was much enjoyed by those who saw it.

As an educational feature, the state fair is a very good thing for any student and helps him to better appreciate state affairs.

The college song.

Close behind Chestnut
In the college we abode,
Like an ever-flowing fountain
We can stand forever,
Sung with his story far and near
Where she stands we'll never forget it
Near the old Willamette's banks.
And in years we'll never regret it
That we entered in her ranks.

CHORES

Tis the good old Quaker college,
And we'll shout her worthy name;
Where we gained our store of know-
edge
In her halls of honor's fame.
And we'll always in this manner
To our mother school be true.

North Pacific College—its yester year
Of Old Gold and Navy Blue.
Comrades, come and raise your voices,
But to praise Pacific College.
While with your heart’s reproach,
Bending your glory far and near.
Then a roasting cheer we give her,
"The least that we can do;"
Oh, P. C. we love forever.
Our Old Gold and Navy Blue.
When the four loved years of college
Shall have long since passed away.
When with worldly care and knowledge
Many a head is turning gray
Still we'll shout her praise the louder
And our hearts give echo true.
As we cheer our Alma Mater,
Of Old Gold and Navy Blue.
GOLD "P" CLUB WILL ENFORCE TRADITIONS

With ten members to start off the new year, the Gold "P" Club is looking forward to a hot time this year. From now on, following their first meeting, the Club will be attended by the Secretary of the Student Body. Taking upon themselves the difficult job of regulating the activities of the school are the officers, club members are busying themselves for the season.

At their first meeting, Charles Beals was elected vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and student officer, and though he is a small man, he is quite sturdy enough to hold things, or just talk big.

New paddles are under construction, made of reinforced concrete, and though it is hoped they will not be necessary to wield them, if the time comes when it is the club does not want them to fail. An order has been placed for a large display paddle made of petrified wood with an inlay "P" of old gold agate. This will only be used in extreme cases, such as when forgetting his cap.

The club is looking forward to a quiet time of polishing the campus but if duty calls they will follow.

Moral—Don’t break traditions.

(Editor’s note: If you haven’t guessed it, this article was written by a student of the University of Idaho. It probably does not come from California either.)

Said the "Inibomite" to his keeper: "I'm going to get you a new one."

The annual convention of the Yamhill County C. E. Union was held last week end in the Presbyterian church of Newberg.

The convention opened Friday evening with a song service, following which a welcome speech by Rev. Lee of Newberg. The Rev. Mr. IBM of Eugene University gave an interesting devotional. Rev. M. of the Portland church gave the first of a series of talks which pleased the audience very much. Every talk of Rev. M. was listened to with great eagerness, and by the time the convention closed all were well aware of the fact that they had heard some mighty essential points in Christian living.

Meetings were held Saturday morn., afternoon and evening, the day sessions given to conferences conducted by county officers. In the morning Rev. Carey gave a very interesting talk on the history of the Bible. In the evening a few of the faithful Endeavorers gathered at the Friends church for a banquet prepared by the ladies of this church. There was the attendance hoped for but those present devoted their share of food and libations to the interesting toast program which had been prepared by Rev. Lee.

Sunday afternoon was a busy time, with the installation of officers for the coming year, awarding of handsome trophies, reports, a devotional talk by Rev. Young of Newberg and a sermon by Rev. Gales on the topic of "The Land of Good Enough." In this he showed that this land was not so good as "The Land of the Best" or God’s land.

The regular Sunday evening Endeavor meeting was led by Russell Under of West Chobble.

The convention closed with a social service led by Jimmie Hendee of Newberg, then to the state president of Christian Endeavor.

Visa Ogden, the state secretary, was at every session giving her helpful advice when possible.

PEACE TOUR TAKEN

did their own cooking, and survived, too! Mr. Choate was chief cook and Mr. Winter was fire builder, chief dish washer, and chief washout. Sleeping under the stars was an enjoyable experience. Whenever possible boys took advantage of the swimming holes they camped by a river.

Making the dates and speaking to new people every day was a valuable experience. The special lecture to the particular audience who went was especially enjoyed. It was almost worth the trip just for the beautiful scenery seen by the boys. The mountains, the lakes, the ocean, Mr. McLaughlin, Crater Lake and many other places were visited during the tour.

The last lecture together was given at the Oregon State College by Mr. Winters, Sunday night, August 26. The next day Mr. Choate drove to Perrysburg, Oregon, where he attended the Young Friends Conference until Thursday morning, when he went on to Greensleaf, Idaho.

Mr. Choate gave the two lectures and the pictures at each of the five points of the Boise Valley Quarterly Meeting during the two weeks he was home and thus added four hundred to the total number of people spoken to during the summer.

This work was very much worthwhile to the boys and will be of unlimited value to them in their life work.

The Y. M. C. A. has been fortunate in securing two very worthwhile speakers for the next two meetings. Wednesday, October 19, we will have the privilege of listening to Professor Gulley. Professor Gulley has had many very interesting experiences and will no doubt bring a very helpful message to all who attend.

Wednesday, October 17, Doctor Lee of the Newberg Presbyterian church will speak. Doctor Lee likes to "walk with the fellows" and has always supported the college and sports activities to the best of his ability.
